A large, ornate initial 'D' in a decorative frame begins the first line of music. The score consists of ten staves of music, each with a vocal line and Latin lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "Audate Dominū omnes gen- tes, omnes gentes, laudate eum, omnes, populi, quoniam, confirmata est super nos, mise- ricordi- a e- ius, & veri- tas Do- mini manet in æternum, ma- net in æternum, manet in æternum, & ve- ritas Domini manet in æternum, manet in æternum, manet in æternum." The music is written in a style typical of 16th-century liturgical books, with square notes on a four-line staff. There are several repeat signs (double dots) throughout the score. The final line of music ends with a double bar line and a final cadence.

Audate Dominū omnes gen- tes, omnes gentes, laudate eum, omnes, populi, quoniam, confirmata est super nos, mise- ricordi- a e- ius, & veri- tas Do- mini manet in æternum, ma- net in æternum, manet in æternum, & ve- ritas Domini manet in æternum, manet in æternum, manet in æternum.
