

WHAT SHALL I DO TO SHOW HOW MUCH I LOVE HER?

from The History of Dioclesian (Z. 627)

Arranged for recorders by R. D. Tennent

Henry Purcell (1659–1695)

A1

What shall I do, to show how much I love her? How ma - ny
That which wins o - thers' hearts, ne - ver can move her. Those common mil - lions of sighs can suf - fice? I will love more than man e'er lov'd be - me - thods of love she'll de - spise.

A2

B

6

12

fore me, gaze on her all the day and melt all the night; till for her own sake, at last she'll im - plore me, to love her less, to pre - serve our de - light.

19