1

A handwritten musical score on eight staves. The notation is in a single system, likely for a piano or similar instrument. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is written in a fluid, cursive style. The first staff contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some beamed groups. The second staff has a measure with a '2' above it, indicating a second ending or a specific fingering. The third staff continues the melodic line. The fourth staff features a measure with a '4' above it. The fifth staff shows a more complex rhythmic pattern with many beamed notes. The sixth staff has a measure with a '2' above it. The seventh staff continues the melodic development. The eighth staff concludes the piece with a double bar line and a final chord. The paper shows signs of age, including yellowing and some foxing.

Tempo
Si minu

Handwritten musical score for a piece titled "Si minu". The score is written on five staves in treble clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo marking "Tempo" is written above the first staff. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as "9" and "12" above notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

A handwritten musical score on six staves. The notation is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is written in a fluid, cursive style. The first staff contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some with fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) and accents. The second staff continues the melodic line with similar note values and fingerings. The third staff features a more complex passage with many beamed sixteenth notes and some slurs. The fourth staff shows a change in texture with more sustained notes and some rests. The fifth staff returns to a more active melodic line with many slurs and ties. The sixth staff concludes the piece with a final cadence, marked by a double bar line and a repeat sign.
