

They Said My Love Would Change with Time

Words by Frederic Enoch

Music by Stephen Glover

Andante con Espressione

Piano

p

5

cresc.

9

dim. They said my love would change with time,— That They said my love would change with time,— A

p

13

all the spell would break and die, For fu - ture years a fleet-ing thought - less dream of way - ward youth, And die, as from the ear a chime, To which the heart would not re - ply. Oh!

16

rhyme, Which bears not with its beau - ty truth; They

19

lit - tle could such be - ings know, The ear - liest love is still the know not how my spir - it turns, Still yearn - ing to that life - fed

22

best, Its ech-o in the heart will grow, Nor fade aray, Whose on-ly change is that it burns Still bright-er dim.

cresc.

sf

dim.

25

way to dream-less rest, An ech-o that with time will each suc-ceed-ing day; A star of love thru life to rall.

a tempo

p

rall.

p

28

grow, In sor-row-ing beau-ty with its chime, A glow, A voice-ful joy, an ech-o chime,

31

spell those hearts could nev-er know — Who said my love would change with cresc.

34

time, — Who said my love, my love would change with time.

f rit. a tempo

37

dim.