*PREFACE.

The occasion of this Preface, was to congratulate the Harmonious on the Publication of this Work, Compos'd by my late lov'd Friend, Mr:William Babell.

The following Pieces being obtain'd from the Executors of a particular Friend of the Author's. I hope will prove an Example to induce all Persons, who have any other of his Compositions, to oblidge the Public with them.

When the World is so unfortunate to lose an esteem'd Author, the only Consolation we have, is the enjoyment of his Works: therefore 'tis to be hop'd, that notwithstanding, the two common Vanity of making manuscripts scarse, by confineing them to the Closets of Particulars; it will in this case be avoided.

HARMONY is so Universaly esteem'd, that to conceal any of his Performances, ould be in some measure doing an injustice to the public: Burging a treasure that might be enjoy'd by others without loss to the Donor: and denying him that Beautifull and lasting monument which his Genius rais'd to him in his Works.

In fine, our author justly be Recorded an Inexhaustible treasure of Harmony: and, had he liv'd in Shakespear's time; we might justly have concluded him the Occasion of the following Lines:

If music be the Food of Love, play on:
That strain again: It had a dying Fall:
Oh! It came o're my Ear like a sweet sound
That breathes upon a Bankof Violets
Setaling and giving Odours.

Shak:
