Tempo di Mazurka.

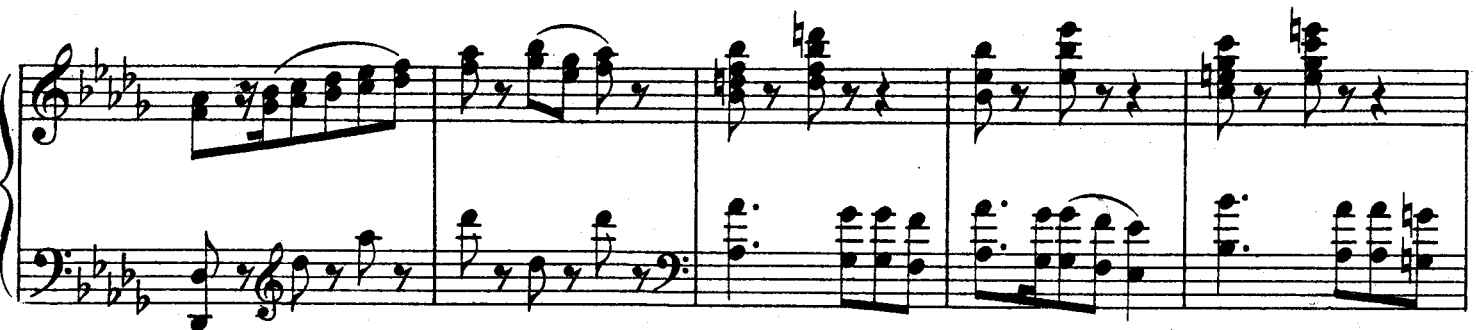

PIANO.

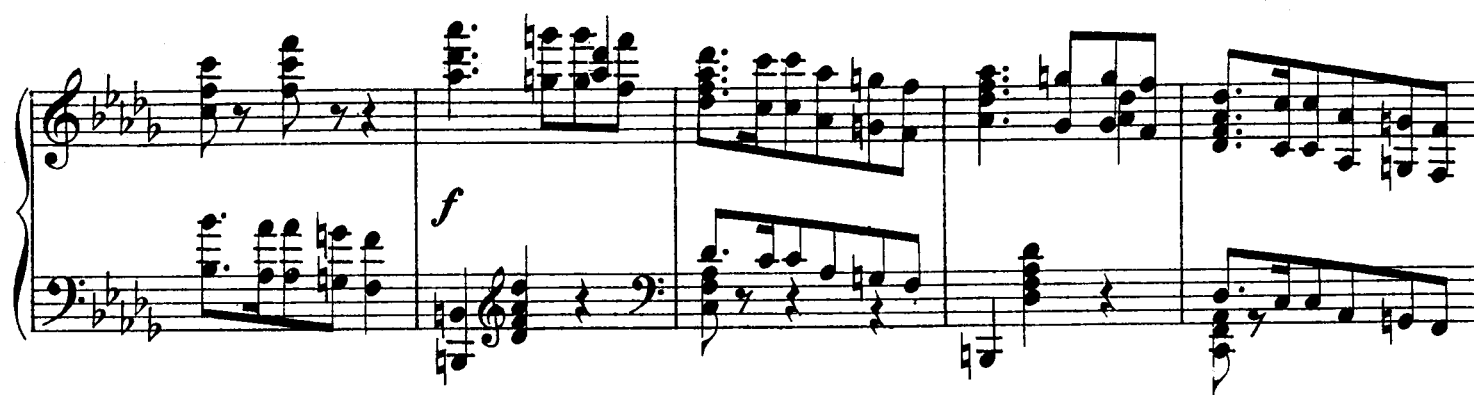

The first system of the musical score is marked "Tempo di Mazurka." and "PIANO." It begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic in the right hand and a piano (p) dynamic in the left hand. The second and third systems continue the piece with similar notation and dynamics.

Più mosso.

The fourth system of the musical score is marked "Più mosso." and continues the piece with similar notation and dynamics.

Più mosso.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of staves. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked "Più mosso." at the beginning. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, triplets, and dynamic markings. The final system concludes with the instruction "rallentando".

Tempo I.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of two staves each. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The first system is marked "Tempo I." and features a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a supporting line. The second system continues the melodic development in the treble staff. The third system shows a more active bass staff. The fourth system features a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a supporting line. The fifth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the treble staff and a supporting line in the bass staff. Dynamics include f, p, and mf.

Piano. pp Presto.

Tempo I.

pp

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked 'Tempo I.' and the dynamics are marked 'pp' (pianissimo). The music is in the key of F# (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first system shows a complex, flowing melody in the right hand and a more rhythmic, chordal accompaniment in the left hand. The second system continues this pattern with some variations in the right hand's melody. The third system introduces a new melodic line in the right hand, characterized by a series of eighth notes and slurs. The fourth and fifth systems further develop these themes, with the right hand playing a more active role and the left hand providing a steady harmonic foundation. The score concludes with a final cadence in the fifth system.

Tempo I.

Musical score for piano, marked "Tempo I." The score consists of five systems of two staves each. The first system shows a treble staff with chords and a bass staff with a continuous eighth-note accompaniment. The second system continues this pattern. The third system introduces a more complex treble staff melody with slurs and a steady bass accompaniment. The fourth system features a treble staff with a series of slurred eighth-note patterns and a bass staff with chords. The fifth system continues the eighth-note patterns in the treble and chords in the bass. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4.
