THE attention given to Devotional Music of late in our schools has rendered it necessary that some book should be prepared containing a choice collection of Hymns and Sacred Music, adapted to the purposes of the school room. The author of this work has devoted one half of the matter to that purpose. The hymns are set to old and popular tunes — familiar melodies, which have been sung by our fathers, and will be sung by the children for generations to come. In the Devotional part, the author has excluded every thing of a sectarian character, and adapted that part of the book for Sabbath schools as well as day schools. For that purpose, the Devotional part will be bound up separately. In the Secular part, many new Songs, Rounds, and Glee's have been introduced, which have never before appeared in this country. It is the wish of the author, that in all our school rooms, both morning and evening, a hymn of praise to the great CREATOR should be sung by all the children.

I N D E X .

A LITTLE word in kindness said,.....	41	Gently, Lord, O gently lead us,	87
A poor wayfaring man of grief,.....	14	God is love ; his mercy brightens,.....	31
All hail, the power of Jesus' name.....	17	God of the morning, at thy voice,.....	45
Awake, my soul, and with the sun,.....	48	Gracious Source of every blessing,.....	38
Be thou, O God, exalted high,.....	35	Great is the Lord our God,.....	49
Begin the high, celestial strain,.....	43	Happy the meek, whose gentle breast,.....	42
Behold the western evening light,.....	89	Heavenly Father, grant thy blessing,.....	31
Brothers, sisters, ere we part,.....	30	How beautiful upon the mountains,.....	93
Come, thou Almighty King,.....	25	How blest the sacred tie,.....	42
Come, ye disconsolate,.....	56	How happy is the child who hears,.....	11
Come, ye that love the Lord,.....	69	How happy is the pilgrim's lot,.....	58
Early, my God, without delay,	44	I hear thee speak of the better land,.....	94
Fading, still fading,.....	63	I like to steal a while away,.....	47
Far from mortal cares retreating,.....	27	I would not live alway,.....	19
Father, once more let grateful praise,.....	10	I'm a lonely traveller,.....	61
Father in heaven,.....	75	Israel's Shepherd, guide me,.....	38
Father, in thy sacred dwelling,.....	27	Jerusalem, my happy home,.....	90
Father of Spirits,.....	83	Jesus shall reign where'er the sun,	28
Father, refuge of my soul,.....	16	Joyfully, joyfully,.....	59
Father, whate'er of earthly bliss,.....	46	Joy to the world,.....	40
Forgive me, Lord,.....	51	Kingdoms and thrones,.....	53
From whence doth this union,.....	80	Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us,.....	86
Fly away to the promised land,.....	78	Let every mortal ear attend,.....	64

Let one loud song of praise arise,	15	The calm retreat, the silent shade,	26
Let us love one another,	20	The hours of evening close,	21
Long as I live, I'll bless thy name,	47	The Lord is my Shepherd,	95
Lord, dismiss us,	74	The Lord my Shepherd is,	34
Lord, when thou didst ascend on high,	9	The Lord my pasture shall prepare,	29
May the grace of Christ, our Savior,	38	The morning light is breaking,	22
My Shepherd will supply my need,	40	The pleasures of earth,	18
My soul, be on thy guard,	34	The rose that blooms,	96
O, come, let us sing unto the Lord,	92	The spacious firmament on high,	24
O, come, loud anthems,	10	The vernal flowers their beauties spread,	88
O could I speak,	60	There is a happy land,	12
O land of rest,	84	There is an hour of hallowed peace,	62
O Lord, another week,	82	There is an hour of peaceful rest,	73
O Lord, behold before thy throne,	12	There is a region lovelier far,	85
O Thou, to whom, in ancient time,	10	There is a stream,	55
O Thou, enthroned in worlds above,	17	There's not a bright and beaming smile,	76
On Jordan's stormy banks,	70	This book is all that's left me now,	32
Our Father's God,	50	This is the field where hidden lies,	46
Our souls by love,	44	Thou art gone to the grave,	8
Praise the Lord, who reigns above,	37	Thou sweet gliding Kedron,	37
Praise God, from whom all blessings,	35	Thus far the Lord has led me on,	45
Praise to thee, thou great Creator,	38	To thy pastures, fair and large,	30
Praise to God, immortal praise,	16	Watchman, tell us of the night,	67
Praise ye Jehovah's name,	25	Welcome, sweet day,	72
Remember thy Creator,	22	What seraph-like music,	54
Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings,	36	When I can read my title clear,	26
Sing, all ye ransomed of the Lord,	43	When, marshalled on the nightly plain,	13
Shed not a tear,	23	When shall we meet again,	57
Soft be the gently-breathing notes,	52	When shall we all meet again,	66
Sweet day, so cool, so calm, so bright,	11	While Nature welcomes in the day,	93
Sweet is the work, my God, my King,	48	While with ceaseless course the sun,	39
Swift my childhood's dreams are passing,	7	Ye Christian heroes, go proclaim,	28
Tell me, wanderer,	77

DEVOTIONAL SONGS AND HYMNS.

SWIFT MY CHILDHOOD'S DREAMS ARE PASSING. BOUNDING BILLOWS.

The musical score is written for a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 2/4. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing a simple accompaniment. The piece concludes with a 'Fine.' marking and a 'D. C.' (Da Capo) instruction. The lyrics are placed below the notes.

Swift my childhood's dreams are passing ; Like the startled doves they fly, Or bright clouds each other chasing,

Or bright clouds each other chasing O-ver yonder qui - - et sky.

Soon I'll hear earth's flattering story ;
Soon its visions will be mine ,
Shall I covet wealth and glory ?
Shall I bow at Pleasure's shrine ?

No, my God ; one prayer I raise thee
From my young and happy heart ;
Never let me cease to praise thee,
Never from thy fear depart.

Then, when years have gathered o'er me,
And the world is sunk in shade ;
Heaven's bright realms will rise before me ;
There my treasure will be laid.

Largo.

Thou art gone to the grave; but we will not deplore thee: Tho' sorrows and darkness en - com- pass the tomb,

The Sa - vior has passed thro' its por - tals be - - fore thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide thro' the gloom, And the lamp of his love is thy guide thro' the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave ; we no longer deplore thee,
 Nor tread the rough path of the world by thy side ;
 But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
 And sinners may hope, since the Savior hath died,
 And sinners may hope, since the Savior hath died.

Thou art gone to the grave, and its mansions forsaking,
 Perhaps thy tried spirit in doubt lingered long;
 But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,
 And the song that thou heard'st was the seraphim's song,
 And the song that thou heardst, &c.

Thou art gone to the grave; but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
 When God was thy ransom, thy Guardian and Guide:
 He gave thee, and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
 Where death hath no sting, since the Savior hath died,
 Where death hath no sting, &c.

LORD, WHEN THOU DIDST ASCEND. L. M.

DUKE STREET.

Allegretto.

Lord, when thou didst as - - cend on high, Ten thousand an - gels filled the sky; Those heavenly guards a - round thee wait, Like chariots that at - tend thy state.

Raised by his Father to the throne,
 He sent his promised Spirit down,
 With gifts and grace for rebel men,
 That God might dwell on earth again.

Recitando.

1. O, come, loud an - thems let us sing, Loud thanks to our Al - - migh - ty King;
 2. In - - to his pres - ence let us haste, To thank him for his fa - - vors past;

For we our voi - ces high should raise, When our sal - - va - - tion's Rock we praise.
 To him ad - dress, in joy - - ful song, Prais - es which to his name be - - - long.

Worship acceptable from every Place.
 O Thou, to whom, in ancient time,
 The lyre of Hebrew bards was strung,
 Whom kings adored in songs sublime,
 And prophets praised with glowing tongue!

Not now on Zion's height alone
 Thy favored worshippers may dwell,
 Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son
 Sat weary by the patriarch's well.

From every place below the skies,
 The grateful song, the fervent prayer,
 The incense of the heart may rise
 To heaven, and find acceptance there.

For the Close of School.

Father, once more let grateful praise
 And humble prayer to thee ascend;
 Thou Guide and Guardian of our ways,
 Our early and our only Friend.

Since every day and hour that's gone
 Has been with mercy richly crowned,
 Mercy, we know, shall still flow on,
 Forever sure, as time rolls round.

Hear, then, the parting prayers we pour,
 And bind our hearts in love alone:
 And if we meet on earth no more,
 May we, at last, surround thy throne.

How hap - py is the child who hears In - struc - tion's warn - ing voice, And who ce - - les - tial wis - dom makes His ear - - ly, on - - ly choice!

For she has treasures greater far
 Than east or west unfold,
 And her rewards more precious are
 Than all their stores of gold.
 She guides the young, with innocence,
 In pleasure's path to tread;
 A crown of glory she bestows
 Upon the aged head.
 According as her labors rise,
 So her rewards increase;
 Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
 And all her paths are peace.

Our Destiny.

Sweet day, so cool, so calm, so bright,
 Bridal of earth and sky!
 The dew shall weep thy fall to-night,
 For thou, alas! must die.

Sweet rose, in air whose odors wave,
 And color charms the eye!
 Thy root is even in its grave,
 And thou, alas! must die.

Sweet spring, of days and roses made,
 Whose charms forever vie!
 Thy days depart, thy roses fade;
 Thou too, alas! must die.

Be wise, then, mortal, while you may,
 For swiftly time has fled;
 The thoughtless ones, who laugh to-day,
 To-morrow may be dead.

1. There is a hap - py land, Far, far a - - way, Where saints in glo - ry stand, Bright, bright as day.

O, how they sweet-ly sing, Wor-thy our Savior King; Loud let his praises ring; Praise, praise for aye.

Come to that happy land;
 Come, come away:
 Why will ye doubting stand?
 Why still delay?
 O, we shall happy be,
 When from sin and sorrow free;
 Lord, we shall live with thee,
 Blest, blest for aye.

3.

Bright, in that happy land,
 Beams every eye;
 Kept by a Father's hand,
 Love cannot die.
 O, then, to glory run;
 Be a crown and kingdom won;
 And bright, above the sun,
 We'll reign for aye.

The Scholars' Pledge.

Never the Drunkard's drink
 Our lips shall stain;
 Ne'er shall the Swearer's words
 Our tongues profane;
 Ever our breath shall be
 From Tobacco's poison free;
 Quarrels we'll shun, you see;
 Peace here shall reign.

WHEN MARSHALLED ON THE NIGHTLY PLAIN. L. M. BONNIE DOON. 13

1. { When, marshalled on the night - ly plain, A glit - tering host be - - stud the sky; One star a - lone, of all the train, Can fix the sin - ner's wandering eye.
 one a - lone the Sa - vior speaks; It is the star of Beth - le - hem. }

Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks From every host, from eve-ry gem, But

2. Once on the raging seas I rode;
 The storm was loud, the night was dark,
 The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
 The wind that tossed my foundering bark.

3. Deep horror then my vitals froze;
 Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
 When, suddenly, a star arose;
 It was the star of Bethlehem.

Children's Prayer.

1. O Lord, behold before thy throne
 A band of children lowly bend;
 Thy face we seek, thy name we own,
 And pray that thou wilt be our Friend.

2. Thou didst on earth the young receive;
 And gently fold them to thy breast,
 And say that such in heaven should live,
 Forever safe, forever blest.

3. Thy Holy Spirit's aid impart,
 That he may teach us how to pray;
 Make us sincere, and make each heart
 Delight to tread in Wisdom's way.

4. O, let thy grace our souls renew,
 And seal a sense of pardon there;
 Teach us thy will to know and do,
 And let us all thine image bear.

1. A poor, way - far - ing man of grief Hath oft - en crossed me on my way, Who sued so humbly for re - lief, That I could nev - - er answer nay: I had not power to ask his name, With-

--- er he went, or whence he came; Yet there was something in his eye That won my love, I knew not why.

2. Once, when my scanty meal was spread,
 He entered—not a word he spake;
 Just perishing for want of bread,
 I gave him all—he blessed it, brake,
 And ate, but gave me part again.
 Mine was an angel's portion then—
 And while I fed with eager haste,
 The crust was manna to my taste.
3. I spied him where a fountain burst
 Clear from the rock—his strength was gone,
 The heedless water mocked his thirst,
 He heard it, saw it hurrying on.
 I ran, and raised the sufferer up;
 Thrice from the stream he drained my cup,
 Dipped, and returned it running o'er—
 I drank, and never thirsted more.
4. 'Twas night. The floods were out; it blew
 A wintry hurricane aloof.
 I heard his voice abroad, and flew
 To bid him welcome to my roof.
 I warmed, I clothed, I cheered my guest,
 Laid him on mine own couch to rest,
 Then made the earth my bed, and seemed
 In Eden's garden while I dreamed.
5. Stripped, wounded, beaten nigh to death,
 I found him by the highway side;
 I roused his pulse, brought back his breath,
 Revived his spirit, and supplied
 Wine, oil, refreshment; he was healed.
 I had myself a wound concealed,
 But from that hour forgot the smart,
 And peace bound up my broken heart.
6. In prison I saw him next, condemned,
 To meet a traitor's doom at morn;
 The tide of lying tongues I stemmed,
 And honored him 'mid shame and scorn.
 My friendship's utmost zeal to try,
 He asked if I for him would die.
 The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill,
 But the free spirit cried, "I will."
7. Then, in a moment, to my view
 The stranger started from disguise;
 The tokens in his hands I knew—
 My SAVIOR stood before my eyes.
 He spake, and my poor name he named—
 "Of me thou hast not been ashamed;
 These deeds shall thy memorial be;
 Fear not, thou didst it unto me."

Song of Adoration.

1. Let one loud song of praise arise
 To God, whose goodness ceaseless flows,
 Who dwells enthroned above the skies,
 And life and health on all bestows.
 Let all of good this bosom fires,
 To him, sole good, give praises due;
 Let all the truth himself inspires
 Unite to sing him only true.
2. In ardent adoration joined,
 Obedient to thy holy will,
 Let all our faculties, combined,
 Thy just commands, O God, fulfil.
 O, may the solemn breathing sound
 Like incense rise before thy throne,
 Where thou, whose glory knows no bound,
 Great Cause of all things, dwell'st alone!

1. Praise to God, — im-mor-tal praise, For the love that crowns our days: Bounteous Source of every joy,

Let thy praise our tongues em - - - ploy.

2. All that spring, with bounteous hand,
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores, —
3. These, to that dear source we owe,
Whence our sweetest comforts flow;
These, through all my happy days,
Claim my cheerful songs of praise.
4. Lord, to thee my soul should raise
Grateful, never-ending praise,
And when every blessing's flown,
Love thee for THYSELF alone.

God a Refuge.

| Father, Refuge of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high : | Hide me, O my Father, hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O, receive my soul at last. | Other refuge have I none:
Helpless hangs my soul on thee;
Leave, O, leave me not alone;
Still support and comfort me. | All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing. |

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name ! Let angels prostrate fall ; Bring forth the royal di-a-dem, And crown him Lord of all,
 2. Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, A remnant weak and small, Hail him, who saved you by his grace, And crown him Lord of all,

Bring forth the roy-al di - - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all.
 Hail him who saved you by his grace, And crown him Lord of all.

 Let every kindred, every tribe,
 On this terrestrial ball,
 To him all majesty ascribe,
 And crown him Lord of all.

4.
 O that,* with yonder sacred throng,
 We at his feet may fall ;
 We'll join the everlasting song,
 And crown him Lord of all.

The Lord's Prayer.

1. O Thou, enthroned in worlds above,
 Our Father and our Friend,
 Lo, at the footstool of thy love
 Thy children humbly bend.
2. All reverence to thy name be given,
 Thy kingdom wide displayed ;
 And, as thy will is done in heaven,
 Be it on earth obeyed.
3. Our table may thy bounty spread
 From thine exhaustless store,

- From day to day, with daily bread ;
 Nor would we ask for more.
4. That pardon we to others give,
 Do thou to us extend ;
 From all temptation, O, relieve,
 From every ill defend.
5. And now to thee belong, Most High,
 The kingdom, glory, power,
 Through the broad earth and spacious sky,
 Till time shall be no more.

1. The pleasures of earth I have seen fade a - way; They bloom for a season, but soon they de -

----- cay. But pleas-ures more last-ing in Je - sus are given, Sal - va - tion on earth, and a mansion in heaven. Home, home, sweet, sweet home, The saints in those mansions for - - ev - - er at home.

2. Allure me no longer, ye false glowing charms;
The Savior invites me; I'll go to his arms;
At the banquet of mercy I hear there is room;
O, there may I feast with his children at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
O Jesus, conduct me to heaven, my home.
3. Farewell, vain amusements; my follies, adieu;
While Jesus, and heaven, and glory I view,
I feast on the pleasures that flow from his throne,
The foretaste of heaven, sweet heaven, my home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
O, when shall I share the fruition of home?
4. The days of my exile are passing away;
The time is approaching when Jesus will say,
"Well done, faithful servant; sit down on my throne,
And dwell in my presence, forever at home."
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
O, there I shall rest with the Savior at home.
5. Affliction, and sorrow, and death shall be o'er;
The saints shall unite, to be parted no more;
There, loud hallelujahs fill heaven's high dome;
They dwell with the Savior forever at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
They dwell with the Savior forever at home.

I would not live alway.

1. I would not live alway; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises o'er the dark way;
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
O, there I shall rest with my Savior at home.
2. I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus has lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There, sweet be my rest till he bid me arise,
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
Home, home, &c.
3. Who, who would live alway away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?
Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
O, there I shall rest with my Savior at home.
4. Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Savior and brethren transported to greet,
Where the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.
Home, home, &c.

1. { Let us love one an - oth - er — not long may we stay In this bleak world of mourning, so brief is life's day ; }
 { Some fade ere 'tis noon, and few lin - ger till eve ; O, there breaks not a heart but leaves some one to grieve ; }

Then O, though the hopes that we nourished de - cay, Let us love one an - oth - er as long as we stay.

{ And the fondest, the purest, the tru - est that met, Have still found the need to for - give and for - get ; }
 { Then O, though the hopes that we nourished de - cay, Let us love one an - oth - er as long as we stay. }

There are hearts like the ivy, though all be decayed
 Which it seemed to clasp fondly in sunlight and shade,
 Yet drop not its leaves, but still gayly they spread,
 Undimmed 'midst the blighted, the lonely, and dead ;
 And the mistletoe clings to the oak, not in part,
 But with leaves closely round it, the root in its heart —
 Exists but to twine it, and drink the same dew,
 Or to fall with its loved oak, and perish there too.
 Exists but to twine it, &c.

Thus we'll love one another 'midst sorrow the worst,
 Unaltered and fond as we loved at the first.
 Though the false wing of pleasure may change and forsake,
 And the bright urn of wealth into particles break,
 There are some sweet affections that earth cannot buy,
 That cling but the closer when sorrow draws nigh,
 And remain with us yet, though all else pass away —
 Yes, we'll love one another as long as we stay.
 And remain with us, &c.

 Our guardian Shepherd near,
 His watchful eye will keep;
 And, safe from violence and fear,
 Will fold his flock to sleep.

 So may a holier light
 Than earth's our spirits rouse,
 And call us, strengthened by his might,
 To pay the Lord our vows.

Divine Guidance.

1. From earliest dawn of life,
 Thy goodness we have shared;
 And still we live to sing thy praise,
 By sovereign mercy spared.
2. To learn and do thy will,
 O Lord, our hearts incline;
 And o'er the paths of future life
 Command thy light to shine.

3. While taught thy word of truth,
 May we that word receive:
 And, when we hear of Jesus' name,
 In that blest name believe.
4. O, let us never tread
 The broad, destructive road,
 But trace those holy paths which lead
 To glory and to God.

Remember thy Creator.

"Remember thy Creator"
While youth's fair spring is bright,
Before thy cares are greater,
Before come age's night;
While yet the sun shines o'er thee,
While stars the darkness cheer,
While life is all before thee,
Thy great Creator fear.

"Remember thy Creator"
Ere life resigns its trust,
Ere sinks dissolving nature,
And dust returns to dust;
Before with God, who gave it,
The spirit shall appear:
He cries, who died to save it,
"Thy great Creator fear."

3.
See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Savior's blessing,
A nation in a day.

Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thy onward way,
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay;
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home
Stay not, till all the holy
Proclaim, the Lord has come.

What though in solemn silence all
 Move round this dark terrestrial ball —
 What though nor real voice nor sound

3. Be thou our Comforter;
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour.
Omnipotent thou art:
O, rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

Praise to God.

1.
Praise ye Jehovah's name;
Praise through his courts proclaim;
Rise and adore;
High o'er the heavens above,
Sound his great acts of love:
While his rich grace we prove,
Vast as his power.

Now let the trumpet raise
Triumphant sounds of praise,
Wide as his fame;
There let the harps be found,
Organs with solemn sound,
Roll your deep notes around,
Filled with his name.

3.
While his high praise ye sing,
Shake every sounding string;
Sweet the accord!
He vital breath bestows —
Let every breath that flows,
His noblest fame disclose:
Praise ye the Lord.

2. Should earth a - gainst my soul en - gage, And fier - y darts be hur'l'd, } And face a frowning world,
Then I can smile at Sa - tan's rage, And face a frown - ing world, }

And wipe my weep - ing eyes, I'll bid fare - well to eve - ry fear, And wipe my weep - ing eyes.
And face a frowning world, Then I can smile at Sa - tan's rage, And face a frowning world.

3. Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall,
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

4. There I shall bathe my weary soul
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

Retirement.

1. The calm retreat, the silent shade,
With prayer and praise agree,
And seem by thy sweet bounty made
For those that follow thee.

2. There, if thy spirit touch the soul,
And grace her mean abode,
O, with what peace, and joy, and love,
She communes with her God!

3. There, like the nightingale, she pours
Her solitary lays,
Nor asks a witness to her song,
Nor thirsts for human praise.

4. There, O my soul, look up and view
Thy Father's smiling face:
Here, promises he grants to you;
In heaven, a resting-place.

1. Father, in thy sacred dwelling, Now we lift the voice in prayer: While our gentle hearts are swelling, Lend, O, lend a gracious ear.

2. Should the distant shadows, ris - ing, Veil in clouds our vernal sky, May we, on thine arm re - clin - ing, Feel se - cure when danger's nigh.

View us on life's troubled wa - ters, Rudely tossed by eve-ry tide; Guide us, infant sons and daughters, O'er the bil - lows far and wide.

Keep us, by thy spir - it giv - en, Till the voyage of life is past; Safe-ly to the port of heav-en Bring our wea - ry souls at last.

The Fount of Blessing.

 Far from mortal cares retreating,
 Sordid hopes and vain desires,
 Here our willing footsteps meeting,
 Every heart to heaven aspires.
 From the fount of glory beaming,
 Light celestial cheers our eyes,
 Mercy from above proclaiming
 Peace and pardon from the skies.

2.
 Who may share this great salvation?
 Every pure and humble mind,
 Every kindred, tongue, and nation,
 From the stains of guilt refined.
 Blessings all around bestowing,
 God withholds his care from none;
 Grace and mercy ever flowing
 From the fountain of his throne.

1. Ye Christian he - roes, go pro - claim Sal - va - tion in Im - man - uel's name;
 2. He'll shield you with a wall of fire, With flaming zeal your breasts in - - spire;

To dis - tant elimes the tidings bear, And plant the rose of Shar - on there.
 Bid rag - ing winds their fu - ry cease, And calm the sav - age breast to peace.

Jesus shall reign.

Andante.

1. To thy pastures, fair and large, heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge; And my couch, with tenderest care,

Midst the springing grass prepare.

When I faint with summer's heat,
Thou shalt guide my weary feet
To the streams, that, still and slow,
Through the verdant meadows flow.

With thy rod and staff supplied,
This my guard, and that my guide.

Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps shalt attend,
And shalt bid thy hallowed dome
Yield me an eternal home.

3.

Safe the dreary vale I tread,
By the shades of death o'erspread;

Closing Hymn.

Brothers, sisters, ere we part,
Every voice and every heart
Join, and to our Father raise
One last hymn of grateful praise.

Though we here should meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore;
There, released from toil and pain,
There we all may meet again.

3.

Now to Him who reigns in heaven
Be eternal glory given;
Grateful for thy love divine,
O, may all our hearts be thine.

HEAVENLY FATHER.

SICILIAN HYMN.

31

1. Heavenly Fa - - ther, grant thy bless - ing On th' in - struc - tions of this day, That our hearts, thy fear pos - sess - ing, May from sin be turned a - way.

2. We have wandered ; O, forgive us ;
We have wished from truth to rove ;
Turn, O, turn us, and receive us,
And incline our hearts to love.
3. We have learned that Christ, the Savior,
Lived to teach us what is good ;
Died to gain for us thy favor,
And redeem us by his blood.
4. For his sake, O God, forgive us ;
Guide us to that happy home,
Where the Savior will receive us,
And where sin can never come.

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal line, written in a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are written below the notes. The middle staff is the right-hand piano accompaniment, and the bottom staff is the left-hand piano accompaniment. The music features a simple, plaintive melody with a steady accompaniment.

The second system of the musical score continues the piece. It also consists of three staves: vocal line, right-hand piano accompaniment, and left-hand piano accompaniment. The key signature and time signature remain the same. The lyrics continue from the first system. The musical notation is consistent with the first system, maintaining the same melodic and harmonic structure.

Ah! well do I remember those Whose names these records bear;
 Who round the hearth-stone used to close,
 After the evening prayer,
 And speak of what these pages said,
 In tones my heart would thrill!
 Though they are with the silent dead,
 Here are they living still.

My father read this holy book
 To brothers, sisters dear —
 How calm was my poor mother's look,
 Who loved God's word to hear!
 Her angel face — I see it yet:
 What thronging memories come!
 Again that little group is met
 Within the walls of home.

Thou truest friend man ever knew,
 Thy constancy I've tried;
 When all were false, I've found thee true,
 My counsellor and guide.
 The mines of earth no treasure give
 That could this volume buy:
 In teaching me the way to live,
 It taught me how to die.

Ne'er think the victory won,
 Nor lay thine armor down:
 Thy arduous work will not be done
 Till thou obtain thy crown.

Fight on, my soul, till death
 Shall bring thee to thy God;
 He'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
 Up to his blest abode.

The Heavenly Shepherd.

1.

The Lord my shepherd is;
 I shall be well supplied;
 Since he is mine, and I am his,
 What can I want beside?

He leads me to the place
 Where heavenly pasture grows,
 Where living waters gently pass,
 And full salvation flows.

3.

If e'er I go astray
 He doth my soul reclaim,
 And guides me in his own right way,
 For his most holy name.

In spite of all my foes,
 He doth my table spread;
 My cup with blessings overflows,
 And joy exalts my head.

1. Be thou, O God, ex - alt - ed high ; And as thy glo - ry fills the sky, So let it be on earth dis -

- - played, Till thou art here as there o - - beyed.

O God, my heart is fixed ; 'tis bent
Its thankful tribute to present ;
And with my heart my voice I'll raise
To thee, my God, in songs of praise.

3.

Thy praises, Lord, I will resound
To all the listening nations round ;
Thy mercy highest heaven transcends ;
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

Praise to God.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly hosts ;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

From all that dwell below the skies
Let the Creator's praise arise ;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

3.

Eternal are thy mercies, Lord ;
Eternal truth attends thy word ;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

Moderato.

1. Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy better portion trace, }
 Rise from tran - si - to - ry things To heaven, thy native place. } Sun, and moon, and stars de - cay; Time shall soon this earth remove; Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats prepared a - - bove.

 Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire, ascending, seeks the sun;
 Both speed them to their source
 So a soul that's born of God
 Pants to view his glorious face;
 Upward tends to his abode,
 To rest in his embrace.

Praise the Lord.

1. Praise the Lord, who reigns above,
 And keeps his courts below;
 Praise him for his boundless love,
 And all his greatness show.
 Praise him for his noble deeds,
 Praise him for his matchless power;
 Him, from whom all good proceeds,
 Let earth and heaven adore.

2. Praise him, every tuneful string;
 And all of heavenly art,
 All the power of music bring,
 The music of the heart.
 Hallowed be his name beneath,
 As in heaven, on earth adored;
 Praise the Lord in every breath;
 Let all things praise the Lord.

Andante.

1. Thou sweet glid - ing Kedron, by thy sil-ver stream, Our Sa-rior would lin - ger in moon-light's soft beam; And by thy bright wa - ters till midnight would stay, And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.

How damp were the vapors that fell on his head!
 How hard was his pillow! how humble his bed!
 The angels, beholding, amazed at the sight,
 Attended their Master with solemn delight.

The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
 The triumph of sorrow — the triumph of love.

3.

O Garden of Olive! thou dear, honored spot,
 The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot;

Come, saints, and adore him — come, bow at his feet;
 O, give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
 Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
 And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

Praise to thee, thou great Cre - - a - - tor! Praise to thee from ev - - - ery tongue!
 For ten thou - sand bless - ings giv - en, For the hope of fu - - - ture joy,

Join, my soul, with ev - - ery crea - ture, Join the u - - ni - ver - sal song.

Prayer for a Blessing.

1. May the grace of Christ, our Savior,
 And the Father's boundless love,
 With the Holy Spirit's favor,
 Rest upon us from above.
2. Thus may we abide in union
 With each other and the Lord,
 And possess, in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth cannot afford.

Closing Hymn.

1. Israel's Shepherd, guide me, feed me,
 Through my pilgrimage below;
 And beside the waters lead me,
 Where thy flock rejoicing go.
2. Lord, thy guardian presence ever,
 Meekly kneeling, I implore;
 I have found thee, and would never,
 Never wander from thee more.

Ascription.

 May we dwell with thee above.

Allegro Risoluto.

1. Joy to the world! the Lord is come! Let earth re - ceive her King; Let ev - ery heart pre - pare him room, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven, And heaven and na - ture sing.

And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and nature sing, And heaven and na - ture sing.

Joy to the world! the Savior reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, &c.

3.

No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found,
Far as, &c.

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love,
And wonders, &c.

 When I walk through the shades of death,
 Thy presence is my stay;
 A word of thy supporting breath
 Drives all my fears away.

4.
 Thy hand, in spite of all my foes,
 Doth still my table spread;
 My cup with blessings overflows;
 Thine oil anoints my head.

Pleasant Words.

 A little word, in kindness said,
 A motion, or a tear,
 Has often healed the heart that's sad,
 And made a friend sincere.

 A word, a look, has crushed to earth
 Full many a budding flower,
 Which, had a smile but owned its birth,
 Would bless life's darkest hour.

3.
 Then deem it not an idle thing
 A pleasant word to speak;
 The face you wear, the thoughts you bring,
 A heart may heal or break.

Moderato.

His heart no broken friendships sting;
No storms his peaceful tent invade;
He rests beneath Jehovah's wing,
Hostile to none, of none afraid.

3.
Spirit of grace, all meek, all mild,
Inspire our hearts, our souls possess;
Repel each passion, rude and wild,
And bless us as we aim to bless.

Sacred Ties.

How blest the sacred tie that binds
In union sweet according minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one!

To each the soul of each how dear!
What zealous love, what holy fear!
How doth the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!

 While sorrow, sighing, and distress,
 Like shadows, all are fled.

 March on in your Redeemer's strength ;
 Pursue his footsteps still ;
 With joyful hope still fix your eye
 On Zion's heavenly hill.

Praise from all Nature.

1.
 Begin the high, celestial strain,
 My raptured soul, and sing
 A sacred hymn of grateful praise
 To heaven's almighty King.

 Ye curling fountains, as ye roll
 Your silver waves along,
 Repeat to all your verdant shores

Morning Hymn.

 God of the morning, at thy voice
 The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
 And like a giant doth rejoice
 To run his journey through the skies.

 O, like the sun may I fulfil
 Th' appointed duties of the day,
 With ready mind and active will
 March on, and keep my heavenly way.

3.
 Give me thy counsels for my guide,
 And then receive me to thy bliss;
 All my desires and hopes beside
 Are faint and cold compared with this.

 Thy presence through my journey shine,
 And crown my journey's end."

The Bible a Treasure.

1.
 This is the field where hidden lies
 The pearl of price unknown;
 Those children are divinely wise
 Who make that pearl their own.

 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name,
 And children learn thy ways,
 Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
 And nations sound thy praise.

 Thy glorious deeds of ancient date
 Shall through the world be known,
 Thine arm of power, thy heavenly state,
 With public splendor shown.

Solitude.

1.
 I love to steal a while away
 From every cumbering care,
 And spend the hours of setting day
 In humble, grateful prayer.

 I love in solitude to shed
 The penitential tear,
 And all his promises to plead
 Where none but God is near.

3.
 I love to think on mercies past,
 And future good implore,
 And all my cares and sorrows cast
 On Him whom I adore.

 In thy sole glory may unite.

Delight in the Sabbath.

Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
 To praise thy name, give thanks and sing ;
 To show thy love by morning light,
 And talk of all thy truth at night.

Sweet is the day of sacred rest ;
 No mortal care shall seize my breast ;
 O, may my heart in tune be found
 Like David's harp of solemn sound.

3.

When shall I see, and hear, and know
 All I desired or wished below,

 Where his own sheep have been.

Gratitude.

1.

My Maker and my King,
 To thee my all I owe;
 Thy sovereign bounty is the spring
 Whence all my blessings flow.

Thou ever good and kind!
 A thousand reasons move,
 A thousand obligations bind
 My heart to grateful love.

3.

Thy goodness, like the sun,
 Dawned on my early days,
 Ere infant reason had begun
 To form my lips to praise.

O, let thy grace inspire
 My soul with strength divine;
 Let all my powers to thee aspire,
 And all my days be thine.

Dolce e Piano.

OLAVES. 51

Moderato.

1. For - give me, Lord, through thy dear Son, The ills which I this day have done,

That with the world, my - self, . . . and thee, I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

Teach me to live that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die that so I may
With joy behold the judgment day.

3.

Be thou my Guardian while I sleep ;
Thy watchful station near me keep ;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from th' approach of ill.

Lord, let my heart forever share
The bliss of thy paternal care ;
'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above,
To see thy face and sing thy love.

1. Soft be the gen - tly - breath - ing notes That sing the Sa - vior's dy - ing love; Soft as the even - ing

Soft as the morning dews descend,
While the sweet lark exulting soars,
So soft to your Almighty Friend
Be every sigh your bosom pours.

3.
True as the magnet to the pole,
So true let your contrition be;
So true let all your sorrows roll
To Him who bled upon the tree.

Death of the Righteous. -

1.
How blest the righteous when they die,
When holy souls retire to rest!
How mildly beams the closing eye!
How gently heaves th' expiring breast!

2.
So fades a summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

3.
Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell:
How bright th' unchanging morn appears!
Farewell, inconstant world, farewell.

Moderato.

The God of all Grace.

1.

Great God, let all my tuneful powers
 Awake, and sing thy mighty name;
 Thy hand revolves my circling hours—
 Thy hand, from whence my being came.

Seasons and moons, still rolling round
 In beauteous order, speak thy praise;
 And years, with smiling mercy crowned,
 To thee successive honors raise.

3.

My life, my health, my friends, I owe
 All to thy vast, unbounded love;
 Ten thousand precious gifts below,
 And hope of nobler joys above.

2.

'Tis the sweet-flowing music that steals o'er the wave
Of Jordan's lone river, as its billows I brave;
'Tis the music of angels, who hasten to bear
My soul o'er the waters to that blessed shore.

3.

A glimpse of bright glory now beams on my sight;
I sink in sweet visions of heaven's dawning light;
Bright spirits are whispering so soft in my ear,
Of heaven, sweet heaven, I long to be there.

 Be thou my light, be thou my way;
 No foes, no violence I fear,
 No fraud, while thou, my God, art near.

The Throne of Love.

There is a pure, a peaceful wave,
 That rolls around the throne of love;
 Whose waters gladden as they lave
 The bright and heavenly shores above.

The pilgrim, faint and near to sink
 Beneath his load of earthly woe,
 Refreshed beneath its verdant brink,
 Rejoices in its gentle flow.

3.

There, O my soul, do thou repose,
 And hover o'er the hallowed spring,
 To drink the crystal wave, and there
 To lave thy wounded, weary wing.

Friends, fondly cherished, have passed on before;
Waiting, they watch me approaching the shore;
Singing, to cheer me through death's chilling gloom,
"Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home."
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear;
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome,
"Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home."

3.

Death, with thy weapons of war lay me low;
Strike, king of terrors; I fear not the blow;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb;
Joyfully, joyfully will I go home.
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn;
Death shall be banished, his sceptre be gone;
Joyfully then shall I witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

1. O, could I speak the match-less worth, O, could I sound the glories forth Which in my Sa-vior shine, I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings, And vie with Gabriel, while he sings, In notes almost di-vine, In notes al-most di-vine.

I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine;
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3.

I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne;
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would, to everlasting days,
Make all his glories known.

Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see his face;
Then with my Savior, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

I'm a traveller to a land
 Where all is fair,
 Where is seen no broken band;
 Saints all are there;
 Where no tear shall ever fall,
 Nor heart be sad;
 Where the glory is for all,
 And all are glad.

I'm a traveller, and I go
 Where all is fair;
 Farewell, all I've loved below—
 I must be there;
 Worldly honors, hopes, and gain,
 All I resign;
 Welcome sorrow, grief, and pain,
 If heaven be mine.

5.

I'm a traveller—call me not;
 Upward's my way;
 Yonder is my rest and lot;
 I cannot stay;
 Farewell, earthly pleasures all;
 Pilgrim I roam;
 Hail me not—in vain you call;
 Yonder's my home.

Ho, all ye hungry, starving souls,
That feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill an empty mind.

3.

Eternal Wisdom hath prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.

Ho, ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
Here you may quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.

Rivers of love and mercy here
In a rich ocean join;
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.

1. When shall we all meet a - gain? When shall we all meet a - gain? Oft shall glow-ing hope ex - pire;

Oft shall wea - ried love re - tire; Oft shall death and sor - row reign, Ere we all shall meet a - gain.

Though in distant lands we sigh,
 Parched beneath a burning sky,
 Though the deep between us roll,
 Friendship shall unite our souls;
 And in fancy's wide domain
 Oft shall we all meet again.

3.

When these burnished locks are gray,
 Thinned by many a toil-spent day;
 When around this youthful pine,
 Moss shall creep and ivy twine;
 (Long may this loved bower remain;)
 Here may we all meet again.

When the dreams of life are fled,
 When its wasted lamp is dead,
 When in cold oblivion's shade
 Beauty, wealth, and fame are laid,
 Where immortal spirits reign,
 There may we all meet again.*

* This poetry, it is said, was "composed and sung by three Indians, who were educated at Dartmouth, at their last interview before leaving college, in an enchanting bower whither they had often resorted, and in the midst of which grew a 'youthful pine.' Nearly half a century afterwards they providentially met again; the recollection of bygone days drew them to the same spot, and, at a meeting still more affecting, they composed and sung the hymn on the following page."

2d Ending.

 There generous fruits, that never fail,
 On trees immortal grow;
 There rock and hill, and brook and vale,
 With milk and honey flow.
 All o'er those wide-extended plains
 Shines one eternal day;
 There Christ, the Son, forever reigns,
 And scatters night away.

3.
 No chilling winds or poisonous breath
 Can reach that healthful shore;
 Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
 Are felt and feared no more.
 When shall I reach that happy place,
 And be forever blest?
 When shall I see my Father's face,
 And in his bosom rest?

 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
 Would here no longer stay;
 Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
 Fearless I'd launch away.
 There, on those high and flowery plains,
 Our spirits ne'er shall tire;
 But, in perpetual, joyful strains,
 Redeeming love admire.

Jesus himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3.

One day amid the place
Where God my Savior's been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasure and of sin.

4.

My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this
Till called to rise and soar away
To everlasting bliss.

1. There is an hour of peace - ful rest To mourn - ing wan - derers given; There is a joy

2.

There is a home for weary souls,
By sin and sorrow driven,
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
And all is drear but heaven.

3.

There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
To brighter prospects given;
It views the tempest passing by,
Sees evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene in heaven.

There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the dark, the narrow tomb,
Appears the dawn of heaven.

Living Waters.

1.
See, from Zion's sacred mountain
Streams of living water flow;
God has opened there a fountain
Which supplies the world below;
They are blesséd
Who its sovereign virtues know.

Through ten thousand channels flowing,
Streams of mercy find their way;
Life, and health, and joy bestowing,
Making all around look gay;
O ye nations,
Hail the long-expected day.

3.
Trees of life, the banks adorning,
Yield their fruit to all around;
Those who eat are saved from mourning;
Pleasure comes and hopes abound;
Fair their portion!
Endless life with glory crowned.

God our Guide.

1.
 Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
 Pilgrim through this barren land;
 I am weak, but thou art mighty;
 Hold me with thy powerful hand;
 Bread of heaven,
 Feed me till I want no more.

 Open now the crystal fountain,
 Whence the healing streams do flow;
 Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
 Lead me all my journey through;
 Strong Deliverer,
 Be thou still my strength and shield.

3.
 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
 Bid my anxious fears subside;
 Bear me through the swelling current;
 Land me safe on Canaan's side;
 Songs of praises
 I will ever give to thee.

Nor yet in a paradise lost;
It grows on Emanuel's ground,
And Jesus' dear blood it did cost.

3.
My friends are so dear unto me,
Our hearts all united in love;
Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
In yonder blest mansions above.

O, why then so loath for to part,
Since we shall ere long meet again?
Engraved on Emanuel's heart,
At distance we cannot remain.

5.
And when we shall see that bright day,
United with angels above,
No longer confined to our clay,
O'erwhelmed in the ocean of love, —

6.
O, then with our Jesus we'll reign,
And all his bright glory shall see;
We'll sing Hallelujah, Amen!
Amen, even so let it be.

2.

And, Jesus, thou thy smiles wilt deign,
As in thy name we pray;
For thou didst bless the infant train,
And we are weak as they.
O, let thy grace perform its part,
And bid our passions cease,
And shed abroad in every heart
Thine everlasting peace.

My Father's House.

1. There is a place of waveless rest,
Far, far beyond the skies,
Where beauty smiles eternally,
And pleasure never dies.
My Father's house, my heavenly home,
Where "many mansions" stand,
Prepared by hands divine, for all
Who seek the better land.

2. When tossed upon the waves of life,
With fear on every side,
When fiercely howls the gathering storm,
And foams the angry tide,
Beyond the storm, beyond the gloom,
Breaks forth the light of morn,
Bright beaming from my Father's house,
To cheer the soul forlorn.

3. In that pure home of tearless joy
Earth's parted friends shall meet,
With smiles of love that never fade,
And blessedness complete.
There, there adieus are sounds unknown;
Death frowns not on that scene,
But life, and glorious beauty, shine,
Untroubled and serene.

 Thy rich grace in all our fears.
 O refresh us with thy blessing,
 O refresh us with thy grace;
 May thy mercies, never ceasing,
 Fit us for thy dwelling-place.

In the hour of pain and anguish,
 In the hour when death draws near,
 Suffer not our hearts to languish,
 Suffer not our souls to fear.
 When this mortal life is ended,
 Bid us in thine arms to rest,
 Till, by angel bands attended,
 We awake among the blest.

THE VERNAL FLOWERS THEIR BEAUTIES SPREAD. C. M.

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The middle staff is an alto clef with a key signature of two flats. The bottom staff is a bass clef with a key signature of two flats. The lyrics are written below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across bar lines. The lyrics are: "blem of its de - cay; Swift - ly they leave us for the tomb, With - er and pass a - way. babes go on be - fore, That our fond hearts may fol - low them To that im - mor - tal shore."

Peaceful Death of the Righteous.

Behold the western evening light!
 It melts in deepening gloom;
 So calmly Christians sink away,
 Descending to the tomb.
 The winds breathe low; the yellow leaf
 Scarce whispers from the tree;
 So gently flows the parting breath
 When good men cease to be.

How beautiful, on all the hills,
 The crimson light is shed!
 'Tis like the peace the Christian gives
 To mourners round his bed.
 How mildly on the wandering cloud
 The sunset beam is cast!
 So sweet the memory left behind
 When loved ones breathe their last.

3.

And lo! above the dews of night
 The vesper star appears;
 So faith lights up the mourner's heart
 Whose eyes are dim with tears.
 Night falls, but soon the morning light
 Its glories shall restore;
 And thus the eyes that sleep in death
 Shall wake to close no more.

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one flat) and 4/4 time. The middle and bottom staves are piano accompaniment. The lyrics are numbered 1, 2, and 3, corresponding to the three staves.

 The Christian's Hope.

Hail, sweetest, dearest tie, that binds
 Our glowing hearts in one;
 Hail, sacred hope, that tunes our minds
 To harmony divine.
 It is the hope, the blissful hope,
 Which Jesus' grace has given;
 The hope, when days and years are past
 We all shall meet in heaven.

What though the northern wintry blast
 Shall howl around our cot;
 What though beneath an eastern sun
 Be cast our distant lot;
 Yet still we share the blissful hope
 Which Jesus' grace has given —
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

3.

No lingering look, no parting sigh,
 Our future meeting knows;
 There friendship beams from every eye,
 And love immortal glows.
 O, sacred hope! O, blissful hope!
 Which Jesus' grace has given —
 The hope, when days and years are past,
 We all shall meet in heaven.

1. O come, let us sing	unto the	Lord;	Let us heartily rejoice in the	strength of	our sal-	vation.
3. For the Lord is a	great	God;	And a great	King a-	bove all	gods.
5. The sea is his, and	he made	it;	And his hands pre-	par - ed	the dry	land.
7. For he is the	Lord our	God :	And we are the people of his pasture, and the	sheep of	his	hand.
10. Glory be to the Father, and	to the	Son ;	And	to the	Ho - ly	Ghost.

2. Let us come before his presence	with thanks-	giving ;	And show ourselves	glad in	him with-	psalms.
4. In his hands are all the corners	of the	earth ;	And the strength of the	hills is	his	also.
6. O come, let us worship	and fall	down ;	And kneel be-	fore the	Lord our	Maker.
8. O worship the Lord in the beauty of	ho - li-	ness.	Let the whole	earth stand in	awe of	him.

Morning Hymn.

 While nature welcomes | in the day,
 My heart its | earliest vows would pay
 To Him whose care hath | kindly kept
 My life from | danger while I slept.

 So may the sun of | righteousness
 With kindest | beams my bosom bless;
 Warm into life each | heavenly seed,
 To bud and | bear some generous deed.

CHANT.—I HEAR THEE SPEAK OF THE BETTER LAND.

POETRY BY MRS. HEMANS.

MUSIC BY ASA FITZ.

1. I hear thee speak of the bet - ter land; Thou callest its children a hap - py band; Mother, O where is that
2. Is it where feathery palm trees rise, And the date grows ripe under sun - ny skies? Or midst the green islands of ra - dant shore? Shall we not seek it and weep no more? Is it where the flower of the or - ange blows?

glit - tering seas, Where fragrant forests per - fume the breeze, And strange bright birds on their star - ry wings

And the fireflies glance through the myr - tle boughs? "Not there, not there, my child."
Bear the rich hues of all glo - rious things? "Not there, not there, my child."

3.

Is it far away in some | region | old,
 Where the rivers wander o'er | sands of | gold ?
 Where the burning rays of the | ruby | shine,
 And the diamond lights up the | secret | mine,
 And the pearl gleams forth from the | coral | strand,—
 Is it there, sweet mother, that | better | land ?
 " Not there, not there, my child.

" Eye hath not seen it, my | gentle | boy;
 Ear hath not heard its deep | songs of | joy ;
 Dreams cannot picture a | world so | fair ;
 Sorrow and death may not | enter | there ;
 Time doth not breathe on its | fadeless | bloom ;
 Far beyond the clouds and be- | yond the | tomb,—
 It is there, it is there, my child."

CHANT.—THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD.

1. The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pas- } tures; he leadeth me beside the still } wa - - - ters. A - men

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness, for his | name's | sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they | comfort | me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointedst my head with oil; my | cup
 runneth | over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for- | ever. | Amen.

CHANT.—THE ROSE THAT BLOOMS.

1. The rose that blooms } vale, And scents the purple } breath, May in the shades } fail, And bend its crimson } death.
 in Sharon's } morning } of evening } head in }

And earth's bright ones amid the tomb
 May like the blushing rose decay;
 But still the mind, the mind shall bloom
 When time and nature fade away.

3.

And there, amid a holier sphere,
 Where the archangel bows in awe,
 There sits the King of Glory near,
 And executes his perfect law.

The ransomed of the earth with joy
 Shall in their robes of beauty come,
 And find a rest without alloy
 Amid the Christian's happy home.

By cool Siloam's shady Rill.

1.

By cool Siloam's shady rill
 How fair the lily grows!
 How sweet the breath beneath the hill
 Of Sharon's dewy rose!

3.

By cool Siloam's shady rill
 The lily must decay;
 The rose that blooms beneath the hill
 Must shortly fade away.

Lo, such the youth whose holy feet
 The paths of peace have trod;
 Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
 Is upward drawn to God.

O Thou who 'giv'st us life and breath,
 We seek thy grace alone,
 In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
 To keep us still thine own.
