

You Never Know What You Can Do Till You Try

Words by George Cooper

Music by John Rogers Thomas

Festivamente

F

B $\flat$ /F

F

1. You nevv - er know what you can do, till you try, While

2. Be this then your mot - to, and all will be well, For

F

G7

C

F

B $\flat$ /F

plod - ding your jour - ney, Oh bear this in mind, And if you will heed it you'll if you should fall in at - tain - ing your end, You'll al - ways do some-thing to 12

F C/G G7 C

“nev - er say die,” Tho’ for - tune should prove to you way - ward and blind; Tho’ help you to quell, The sor - row and gloom which mis - for - tune at - tend; Re -

12

15

C7 F C7 F A7/E Dm

fail - ure may come, to your own - self be true. A good heart will con - quer tho’ mem - ber the ar - cher who aimed at the sun, Tho’ fail - ing his mark yet his 15

18

A7 Dm C7 F F7 Bb N.C.

storm - y the sky, Have faith in your - self and then men will trust you, You ar - row sped high, So pause not in doubt when there’s work to be done, You

18

21 F B $\flat$ C7 F F Gm/B $\flat$

nev - er know what you can do, till you try, You nev - er know what you can nev - er know what you can do, till you try, You nev - er know what you can

f colla voce

24 C7 N.C. F

do, till you try.
do, till you try.