GENERAL PREFACE

The Carl Nielsen Edition is an independent project under the auspices of the Music and Theatre Department of the Royal Library, launched in 1994 on the initiative of the Ministry of Culture and funded by the Ministry and the foundation Carl Nielsen og Anne Marie Carl-Nielsens Legat, with further financial support for the publication of the individual volumes from a number of other private foundations.

The edition is for both practical and scholarly use, and is based on critical editorial principles. It comprises all Nielsen's finished works and completed individual pieces, and seeks as far as possible to reflect the works in the version last sanctioned by the composer. In cases where songs exist in several different arrangements by Nielsen, all the versions are published.

Each work is furnished with an introduction which gives a brief account of the genesis of the work and its place in the composer's oeuvre, and a Critical Commentary including source description, editorial emendations and additions, and important alternative readings. The editorial material is published together with the music.

The edition is divided into the three main series Stage Music, Instrumental Music and Vocal Music, each further divided into volumes; within each genre the works are ordered chronologically.

Series I, Stage Music

- Operas
- Incidental music

Series II, Instrumental Music

- Symphonies
- Other orchestral works
- Concertos
- Chamber music
- Piano and organ works

GENERELT FORORD

Carl Nielsen Udgiven er et selvstændigt projekt under Det Kongelige Biblioteks Musik- og Teaterafdeling, iværksat i 1994 på Kulturministeriets foranledning og finansieret af Kulturministeriet og Carl Nielsen og Anne Marie Carl-Nielsens Legat, hvortil kommer støtte fra en række private fonde til udgivelse af de enkelte bind.

Udgiven er til såvel praktisk som videnskabelig brug, tilrettelagt efter kritisk-videnskabelige udgivelsesprincipper. Den omfatter samtlige Carl Nielsens afsluttede værker og enkeltsatser og søger i videst mulige omfang at afspejle værkerne i den af komponisten senest sanktionerede version. I tilfælde, hvor sange foreligger i flere forskellige arrangementer fra Carl Nielsens hånd, udgives alle versioner.

Hvert værk er forsynet med en indledning, der kort beskriver værkets tilblivelseshistorie og placerer det i den samlede produktion, samt en kritisk beretning, hvor der redegøres for kildesituationen, redaktionelle ændringer og tilføjelser og vigtige varianter. Den kritiske beretning udgives sammen med noteteksten.

Udgiven er opdelt i hovedserierne Scenemusik, Instrumentalmusik og Vokalmusik med tilhørende opdeling i enkeltbind; inden for hver genre er værkerne ordnet kronologisk.

Serie I, Scenemusik

- Operaer
- Skuespilmusik

Serie II, Instrumentalmusik

- Symphonier
- Andre orkesterværker
- Koncerter
- Kammermusik
- Klaver- og orgelværker

Series III, Vocal Music

Cantatas
Songs
Choral Pieces

Series IV, Juvenilia et Addenda

Editorial principles

The music is reproduced with no typographical indications of editorial additions or emendations. These are documented in the Critical Commentary. Typography, score disposition, genre names, and instrument names have been normalized in accordance with present-day practice. With a few exceptions, discussed in more detail in the Critical Commentary, the many additions and changes in Nielsen's works that have been made by friends and colleagues have been removed.

Articulation, dynamics, ties and slurs, execution markings and playing instructions have been normalized on the basis of analogies between clearly parallel passages. All such completions are documented in the Critical Commentary. Obvious writing and printing errors have been tacitly corrected.

Nielsen often notated horns and trumpets with key signatures. This practice has been normalized to a notation exclusively using accidentals.

"Muta in" in connection with the retuning of timpani and changes between two instruments (for example clarinet in A and B^b) have been tacitly normalized. This also applies to the combination of ties and slurs.

In Nielsen's manuscripts the dynamic markings are sometimes rather carelessly placed, and this is also reflected in the early printed editions. This has been tacitly adjusted. The same goes for missing punctuation in Nielsen's texts.

Clefs are normally given as in the main source.

Redaktionelle principper

Nodeteksten gengives uden typografisk markering af redaktionelle tilføjelser eller ændringer. Disse er dokumenteret i den kritiske beretning. Typografi, partituropstilling, instrument- og genrebetegnelser er normaliseret efter nutidig praksis. Med enkelte undtagelser, som der er gjort nærmere rede for i den kritiske beretning, er de mange tilføjelser og ændringer i Carl Niensens værker, der er foretaget af venner og kolleger, fjernet.

Nodeteksten er normaliseret med hensyn til artikulation, dynamik, buer, foredragsbetegnelser og spilletekniske anvisninger således, at der er analogi mellem entydige parallelsteder. Alle sådanne kompletteringer dokumenteres i den kritiske beretning. Oplagte skrive- og trykfejl er stiltiende rettet.

Carl Nielsen noterede ofte horn og trompeter med faste fortegn. Denne praksis er normaliseret til notation udelukkende med løse fortegn.

"Muta in" i forbindelse med omstemning af pauker og skift mellem to instrumenter (f.eks. klarinet i A og B^b) er stiltiende normaliseret. Det samme gælder kombinationen af buer og bindebuer.

I Carl Niensens manuskripter er de dynamiske angivelser undertiden placeret noget skødesløst, hvilket afspejler sig i de tidlige trykte udgaver. Dette er stiltiende justeret. Ligeledes er manglende, nødvendig tegnsætning i Carl Niensens tekster stiltiende tilføjet.

Nøgler gengives normalt som i hovedkilden.

FORORD

PREFACE

This volume contains a number of Nielsen's instrumental juvenilia (Add. 1-16)¹ together with sketches that were seemingly not worked out with a view to publication or performance, but which nevertheless constitute complete compositions (Add. 17-27, 45-49). In addition we publish the composer's arrangements of his own works (Add. 29-37), a selection of his counterpoint exercises (Add. 38-44) and a single work that has survived incomplete but nevertheless can be reconstructed (Add. 28). Not all these works survive in Nielsen's hand. But if they can be traced to his authorship with nearly complete certainty – for example, if they carry his signature or if their provenance can be traced back to him directly – they are included here.²

The aim of the Carl Nielsen Edition is to publish all the composer's completed compositions, which in practice means all his completed movements, since it is not always possible to determine whether or not one or several individual movements were to have formed part of a cycle. The Edition's criterion for whether a movement may be considered complete has up to now been whether it concludes with a double bar; however, it has not been possible to stick to this principle here. In certain cases there are too many incomplete bars on the way to the double bar; in others there are movements that are undoubtedly finished, but where the double bar itself is lacking. Still other unpublished works without a concluding double bar or with many incomplete bars may be completed or reconstructed by means of modest editorial initiative, mainly by analogy with other parts of the music. In addition it has not been considered relevant whether or not a composition should finish with a tonic chord in the home key. For example, the Trauermarsch (Add. 15) for string quartet ends with a half close followed by a double bar and repeat sign, which implies that it may in principle be repeated any number of times.

- 1 For practical reasons the compositions are given addenda numbers (Add.) from 1 to 49.
 - 2 As distinct from other genres, all songs, irrespective of their possible status as juvenilia, are published in CNU III/4-7.

Dette bind indeholder en række af Carl Niensens instrumentale juvenilia (Add. 1-16)¹ samt skitser, som tilsyneladende ikke er gennemarbejdet med henblik på udgivelse eller opførelse, men som dog udgør afsluttede kompositioner (Add. 17-27, 45-49). Desuden publiceres komponistens arrangeringer af egne værker (Add. 29-37), et udvalg af hans kontrapunktstudier (Add. 38-44) samt et enkelt ufuldstændigt overleveret værk (Add. 28), som dog har kunnet rekonstrueres.

Ikke alle disse værker er overleveret i Carl Niensens håndskrift. Men hvis de med en til vished grænsende sikkerhed kan henføres til hans autorskab, f.eks. ved at de er forsynet med hans signatur eller ved at proveniensen kan føres direkte tilbage til ham, er de medtaget her.²

Målsætningen med Carl Nielsen Udgaven er at udgive alle komponistens fuldførte kompositioner, hvilket i praksis vil sige alle hans fuldførte satser, da man ikke kan afgøre, om en eller flere enkeltsatser skulle have indgået i en cyklus af flere satser eller ej. Kriteriet for, at en sats anses for at være fuldført, har i CNU hidtil været, at den slutter med en dobbeltstreg; imidlertid har dette princip ikke kunnet fastholdes her. I nogle tilfælde har der været for mange udfyldte takter på vej hen til dobbeltstregen, i andre tilfælde findes satser, der utvivlsomt er afsluttede, men hvor dobbeltstregen mangler. Atter andre utrykte værker uden afsluttende dobbeltstreg eller med mange udfyldte takter har vist sig at kunne kompletteres eller rekonstrueres ved sparsomme redaktionelle indgreb, først og fremmest analogikompletteringer. Det har således ikke været et krav, at en komposition skulle slutte på en grundakkord i hovedtonearten. For eksempel munder Trauermarsch (Add. 15) for strygekvartet ud i en halvslutning fulgt af dobbeltstreg og repetitionstegn, hvilket indebærer at den i princippet kan gentages uendeligt mange gange.

- 1 Af praktiske årsager er kompositionerne forsynet med addenda-numre (Add.) fra 1 til 49.
 - 2 I modsætning til hvad der gælder øvrige genrer, er samtlige sange, uanset deres eventuelle status som juvenilia, gengivet i CNU III/4-7.

In principle we publish all the arrangements made by the composer himself, or that are found in a version approved by him with a view to performance in this form. On the other hand, we omit rehearsal scores, arrangements that may be considered principally for study purposes, or short scores made with a view to being orchestrated. In practice, however, it can be difficult to determine the purpose of a particular arrangement, as in the case of the Dances from 'Aladdin' for Piano (see below, Add. 34).

The compositions in this volume are edited according to the same guidelines as the composer's other works, with the exception of Add. 45-49, included here in an appendix, which are of such a character that they can hardly have been thought of as independent pieces of music. This is the case with a page of music in a visitors' book and four sketches that may serve to show something of the composer's process of work or biographical circumstances. The movements in the appendix are published in unedited notation, side by side with facsimiles of their respective manuscripts. Since there is no critical commentary as such for the movements in the appendix, the source description in these cases is given beneath each movement.

Below is a list of compositions that survive under Nielsen's name but which by the above-mentioned criteria for publication are not included in the Carl Nielsen Edition, together with works that are mentioned in the literature but which are either lost or never existed.

The volume is arranged such that chamber works appear first; these are followed by piano pieces, the Cantata for the Commemoration of P.S. Krøyer, the composer's arrangements of his own works, and a selection of his exercises in counterpoint. The Appendix concludes the volume. Within the individual categories the compositions are arranged so far as possible chronologically (alternatively according to genres or instrumental forces), although the criteria for dating are in some instances highly uncertain. By contrast with the volumes in Series I-III, the source descriptions and emendations for individual movements are placed in immediate continuation from each other at the end of the volume under the heading Critical Commentary.

The compositions were shared out between the editors as follows:

Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen: Add. 1, 4, 6-17, 19-20, 25, 27, 29-30, 32, 35, 37-44

Lisbeth Larsen: Add. 2-3, 5, 18, 21-24, 26, 28, 31, 33, 36, 45-49
Niels Krabbe: Add. 34

Ideelt set udgives alle de arrangemente, der er udarbejdet af komponisten selv, eller som forefindes i et af ham godkendt arrangement med henblik på at blive opført i denne skikkelse. Derimod udelades indstuderingsspartiturer, arrangemente, der må formodes fortrinsvis at tjene studieformål eller particeller, der er udført med henblik på at blive instrumenteret. I praksis kan det dog være svært at afgøre formålet med det enkelte arrangement; det gælder således Dansene til Aladdin for klaver (se nedenfor, Add. 34).

Kompositionerne i dette bind er redigeret efter samme retningslinjer som komponistens øvrige værker, med undtagelse af Add. 45-49, der er udgivet i et appendiks, og som har en sådan karakter, at de næppe er tænkt som selvstændige musikstykker. Det drejer sig om et musikalsk stambogsblad og fire skitser, der kan tjene til at vise noget om komponistens arbejdsproces eller biografiske omstændigheder. Satserne i Appendiks udgives i en uredigeret nodesats side om side med en faksimile af det pågældende manuskript. Da der ikke bringes et egentligt revisionsapparat for satser i Appendiks, bringes kildebeskrivelsen under den enkelte sats.

Nedenfor bringes en liste over kompositioner, der er overleveret under Carl Niensens navn, men som på grund af ovennævnte udvælgelseskriterier ikke er medtaget i Carl Nielsen Udgaven, samt værker, der er omtalt i litteraturen, men som enten er gået tabt eller aldrig har eksisteret.

Bindet er disponeret således, at kammermusikalske værker anbringes først; derpå følger klaverværker, Kantate til Mindefesten for P.S. Krøyer, komponistens arrangemente af egne værker samt et udvalg af hans kontrapunkt opgaver. Endelig afslutter Appendiks bindet. I de enkelte kategorier er kompositionerne søgt anbragt kronologisk (subsidiært efter genre eller besætning), omend kriterierne for en datering undertiden er meget usikre. Til forskel fra bindene i serie I-III sættes kildebeskrivelse og Editorial Emendations for de enkelte satser i umiddelbar forlængelse af hinanden bag i bindet under overskriften Critical Commentary.

Kompositionerne er fordelt mellem udgiverne således:

Lisbeth Ahlgren Jensen: Add. 1, 4, 6-17, 19-20, 25, 27, 29-30, 32, 35, 37-44

Lisbeth Larsen: Add. 2-3, 5, 18, 21-24, 26, 28, 31, 33, 36, 45-49
Niels Krabbe: Add. 34

SONATA FOR VIOLIN AND PIANO
(A D D . 5)

The Sonata for Violin and Piano in G major is presumably one of Nielsen's earliest compositions, if we can trust the date "1881", which was subsequently placed on the manuscript. No public performances of the sonata are known, but we do have an account of something that might perhaps be called a private premiere. Although Nielsen as a regimental musician in 1880 had received a pay rise and was promoted to corporal, he was dissatisfied with his situation, since he felt that he could learn no more in Odense. Then he met the musician Olfert Jespersen,²⁰ later to become musical director at the Zoological Gardens in Copenhagen, with whom he swiftly became friends and began to make music. In a letter to Nielsen of 1902, Jespersen looked back on their first meeting and recalled the impression the violin sonata had made on him:

"It's damned fine to know that you are the same person, the same human being, now as then when the pianist from 'Det blaa Øje'²¹ in Odense was sitting at the piano in your little room, and applied his modest gifts to playing the piano part – not to a march or polka, as I thought it would be before I arrived – but to a young man's sonata (in G), with its scent of Mozartean youth."²²

The composer himself also recalled the time the two young men played his first violin sonata, although he remembered the premiere of his Mozart-inspired sonata as having taken place in "Det blaa Øje":

"We met one day in the basement tavern where Outzen made music, and there we played several of my compositions, amongst them a sonata that I had just composed, and the cheerful, talented little young man, who brought a breath of the capital city, enlivened me and expressed the opinion that I had a future as a musician."²³

SONATE FOR VIOLIN OG KLAVER
(A D D . 5)

Sonate for violin og klaver i G-dur er formentlig en af Carl Niensens tidligste kompositioner, hvis man skal fæste lid til årstallet "1881", som efterfølgende er påført manuskriptet. Der kendes ikke offentlige opførelser af sonaten, men derimod er der bevaret en skildring af noget, der måske kan betegnes som en førsteopførelse under private former. Skønt Nielsen som regimentsmusiker i 1880 havde modtaget lønhøjelse og var blevet udnævnt til korporal, var han utilfreds med sin situation, fordi han mente, at han ikke kunne lære mere i Odense. Men så mødte han musikeren Olfert Jespersen,²⁰ den senere musikdirektør i Zoologisk Have i København, med hvem han hurtigt sluttede venskab og begyndte at spille. I et brev til Carl Nielsen så Jespersen i 1902 tilbage på deres første møde og på det indtryk, hans violinsonate havde gjort på ham:

"Det er pokkers rart at vide at De er den samme, Person og Menneske, nu, som dengang da Pianisten fra 'Det blaa Øje'²¹ i Odense sad ved Klaveret i Deres lille Værelse, og efter fattig Evne spillede Klaverstemmen – ikke til en Marsch eller Polka, som jeg troede det drejede sig om forinden jeg kom til Dem – men til en ung Mands Sonate (i G.) hvorover der var en Duft af Mozarts Ungdom".²²

Komponisten selv huskede også tilbage på dengang, de to som unge havde spillet hans første violinsonate, om end han erindrede sig, at uropførelsen af hans Mozart-inspirerede sonate var foregået i "Det blaa Øje":

"Vi traf hinanden en Dag i den Kælder, hvor Outzen musicerede; dér spillede vi nogle af mine Kompositioner sammen, blandt andet en Sonate, som jeg lige havde komponeret; og den lille friske, begavede unge Mand, der bragte et Pust fra Hovedstaden, animerede mig og mente, at jeg havde en Fremtid for mig som Musiker".²³

20 Pianist og dirigent (1863-1932), forfatter til erindringsværket Oplevelser, København 1930. Et kapitel om Carl Nielsen er indeholdt i 2. udgave af bogen, udgivet 1931.

21 Lokalt værtshus i Odense.

22 Carl Nielsen Brevudgaven, bd. 2, s. 253.

23 Carl Nielsen, op. cit., s. 211.

Playing with Olfert Jespersen also helped to convince Nielsen that his future lay in music, and in his memoirs the meeting with Jespersen is mentioned immediately before he describes his departure from Odense and his first journey to Copenhagen in the spring of 1883 – carrying in his bag the following string quartet in D minor (Add. 8).

QUARTET FOR TWO VIOLINS, VIOLA
AND CELLO IN D MINOR (ADD. 8)

According to Nielsen's memoirs, the quartet was composed in Odense while he was having lessons with the above-mentioned choirmaster Carl Larsen and playing chamber music with some of his friends:

“Here I got to know quartets by Haydn, Mozart, Pleyel and Onslow, and I was so enthusiastic that I set about composing a quartet of my own; in a month or so it was finished. I still have this work, and I actually can't understand how I was able without the slightest theoretical skills to set it on its feet. The Quartet, in the key of D minor, is really well put together, and in the scherzo there is even a canon, correctly executed. Naturally there's no originality there, but it's fresh and alive.”²⁴

It is interesting that this scherzo, the third movement in the D minor Quartet, uses the same motif as the concluding scherzo of the Violin Sonata (Add. 5). However, which of the two works was composed first cannot be determined on this basis. There is no indication of performances of the early string quartet, but it is probable that Nielsen played it together with his quartet friends in Odense. He also proudly presented his quartet together with a letter of recommendation from Klaus Berntsen²⁵ to the man he regarded as unquestionably the highest authority on this matter:

“So one day in May 1883 I travelled to Copenhagen for a violin audition with V. Tofte²⁶ and to present my string quartet to Samspillet med Olfert Jespersen var altså med til at bestyrke Nielsen i, at hans fremtid lå inden for musikken, og i hans erindringsværk er mødet med Jespersen da også omtalt umiddelbart inden han skildrer sit opbrud fra Odense og for første gang rejste til København i foråret 1883 – i øvrigt med nedenstående kvartet i d-mol (Add. 8) i bagagen.

KVARTET FOR TO VIOLINER,
BRATSCH OG CELLO I D MOL
(ADD. 8)

Kvartetten er ifølge Nielsens erindringer komponeret, mens han i Odense tog undervisning hos den tidligere nævnte kantor Carl Larsen og dyrkede kvartetssammen spil med nogle af sine kammerater:

“Her lærte jeg Haydns, Mozarts, Pleyls og Onslows Kvartetter at kende, og jeg blev saa betaget, at jeg foresatte mig at komponere en Kvarter; i Løbet af en Maanedstid var den også færdig. Jeg er endnu i Besiddelse af dette Arbejde og begriber egentlig ikke, at jeg dengang uden de ringeste theoretiske Kundskaber har kunnet stable den paa Benene. Kvartetten, der staar i d moll, er nemlig rigtig godt formet, og i Scherzoen forekommer endogsaa en Kanon, som er korrekt gennemført. Naturligvis er den uden al Originalitet, men levende og frisk”.²⁴

Det er interessant, at den omtalte scherzo, der udgør d-mol kvartetens tredje sats, benytter samme motiv som den afsluttende scherzo i violinsonaten (Add. 5). Hvilket af de to værker, der er komponeret først, kan dog næppe afgøres på dette grundlag. Der kendes ingen beretninger om opførelser af den tidlige strygekvartet, men det er sandsynligt, at Nielsens har opført den sammen med sine kvartetkammerater i Odense. Desuden præsenterede han stolt sin kvartet (sammen med en anbefaling fra Klaus Berntsen)²⁵ for den i hans øjne højeste autoritet udi det spørgsmål:

“Saa rejste jeg da en skønne Dag i Maj 1883 til Kjøbenhavn for at aflægge prøve paa Violinen for V. Tofte²⁶ og for at præsentere min

CRITICAL COMMENTARY

In the Critical Commentary the following conventions are used:

- 1 “by analogy with” is used when something has been “added”, “emended” or “omitted” by analogy with another passage in the main source. The analogy may be vertical. When something is added “by analogy with” one or more instruments, it is understood that the analogy is with the same place in the same bar(s). Or it may be horizontal. When something is added “by analogy with” one or more bars, it is understood that the analogy is with a parallel place in the same instrument(s).
- 2 “as in” is used when something is “added”, “emended” or “omitted” to correspond to the same place in another source.
- 3 “in accordance with” is used in cases where there is no authoritative source, only a guideline – for example printed part material.

In the bar number column, the symbol “+” is used to indicate an upbeat to the bar in question.

A d d . 5 S O N A T A F O R V I O L I N A N D P I A N O

A Piano score, autograph, fair copy.
 DK-Kk, CNS 23.
 Title on first music page: "Sonate N^o 1 / af Carl Nielsen".
 Dating on first music page: "1881-1882", added in pencil (CN?).
 Donated to The Royal Library by Irmelin Eggert Møller in 1958.
 33.5x25.6 cm, 8 folios and 1 bifolio (pp. 9-12), 19 pages written in ink and 1 page written in pencil. Paginated 1-20 in pencil (p. 1 unpaginated). The source has previously been sewn.
 Paper type: 12 staves (hand-ruled).
 Autograph additions in ink and pencil.
 Contains:
 pp.1-19: the sonata;
 p. 20: 2 drafts: 1) draft for Vuggevisse, 8 bars, D-major, 6/8; title "Vuggevisse" added in pencil in unknown hand. 2) 2 bars, G-major (?), 8/4, and the text "Non plus ultra / der wat gut Klonsnak [?] ohne Worth" added in pencil (unknown hand).

In the manuscript the dynamic markings are often placed both in connection with pf.1 and pf.2. In the present edition they are placed between the systems in most cases; Nielsen's notation, however, is kept in cases of doubt.
