The first system of the score features a piano accompaniment. It consists of four staves: three treble clefs and one bass clef. The music is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The piece begins with a pp (pianissimo) dynamic marking. The melody is primarily in the right hand, with the left hand providing harmonic support. The system concludes with a ritard (ritardando) marking and a final pp dynamic.

The second system of the score includes vocal parts and piano accompaniment. It features five staves: four treble clefs and one bass clef. The vocal parts are written in the upper four staves, and the piano accompaniment is in the bottom two staves. The lyrics for the vocal parts are: "Bid the kings, who rule a-round him, Bow their heads before his name; Bid their". The piano accompaniment continues with the same harmonic structure as the first system. The system ends with a double bar line.
