NO CROWN WITHOUT THE CROSS.

SACRED SONG.

Words by GEORGE COOPER.

Music by J. R. THOMAS.

Andantino

1. When wand'ring feet have wea - ry grown, And clouds make dim our way; When
2. Oh! gen - tle balm for ev' - ry grief, Oh! foun - tain of our love! Here all our dear - est hopes are flown, And dark - ly looms the day; The may my spir - it find re - lief While in the gloom I rove. Lo!

blest as-sur - ance O! how sweet, ... A - mid this world of dross, Where soft - ly falls up - on my ear, A - mid my pain and loss, The ev - er stray our wea - ry feet: "No crown without the cross!" "No watch - word quell - ing ev' - ry fear; "No crown without the cross!"

crown, No crown with - out..... the cross!"

3. So bear thy bur - den, wea - ry one, The toil will soon be o'er; Thy long - ing eyes - their weep - ing done— Shall see the gold - en shore! How fair the bless - ing af - ter pain!.... The gain for ev' - ry loss! In life and death, in sun and rain: "No crown without the cross!" "No crown, No crown with - out..... the cross!"
