

"THE CUCKOO."

Words by CLIFTON BINGHAM.

Music by NOEL JOHNSON.

London: The Vincent Music Company, Ltd., 60 Berners Street, W.

Copyright.

Price

Andante.

mf

We

Andante.

mf

poco rit.

p mf

PIANO.

heard the Cuckoo this morn - ing Be - fore we crept out of bed, —

We

As the heard the Cuckoo this morn - ing Be - fore we crept out of bed, — As the sun shone in at the win - dow, And what do you think it said? And sun shone in at the win - dow, And what do you think it said? And cresc. f p

what, and what do you think it said? Cuc-koo! Cuc-koo! That's

And what do you think it said? Cuckoo! Cuckoo! That's

rit. a tempo mf p

just what the Cuc - koo, just what the Cuc - koo, just what the Cuckoo said! just what the Cuc - koo said, That's just what the Cuckoo said!

f mf

It

mf poco rit.

a tempo

meant "get up lit-tle peo - ple, For I have been up quite long, —

It

a tempo

Don't you meant "get up lit-tle peo - ple, For I have been up quite long, — Don't you

cresc.

know it's a sweet spring morn - ing!" And that was the Cuc - koo's cresc.

know it's a sweet spring morn - ing!" And that was the Cuc - koo's cresc.

f p rit. a tempo

song, — And that, and that was the Cuc-koo's song. Cuc-koo! Cuc-

f p rit. a tempo

song, — And that was the Cuc-koo's song. Cuckoo!

f p rit. a tempo

koo! Yes! that was the Cuc - koo's song, the Cuc - koo's Cuckoo! Yes! that _____ was the Cuc - koo's song, Yes!

mf f

song, 'twas the Cuc - koo's song, the Cuc - koo's song, the Cuc - koo's that was the Cuc - koo's song, the Cuc - koo's song, the Cuc - koo's

mf

song. dim. e rall. p
 song. dim. e rall. p
 song. dim. e rall. p pp