THE BABY ON THE SHORE.

WRITTEN & COMPOSED BY GEORGE GROSSMITH.

To be played with grace and sung with mock gravity.

ANDANTE MODERATO.

PIANO.

mf

tenderly.

The sun was shin - ing brightly, Yes, shining as it never shone be -

p

- fore: We were thinking of the old folks at home, And we left the ba - by on the

fz fz p

f

shore. Yes, we left the ba - by on the shore, A thing which we've never done be -

Cres.

f fz Cres.

COPYRIGHT, 1891, BY JAMES BATH, LONDON, ENGLAND.

p Dim.
fore; Oh, way down the old Swannee river, You will find the ba_by on the
f
p Dim.
f shore. We are leaving, leaving now for ev_er, A thing which we've never done be_ f fz
Cres.
p fore; If you see the mother tell her gen tly, She will find her ba_by on the fz
p Dim.
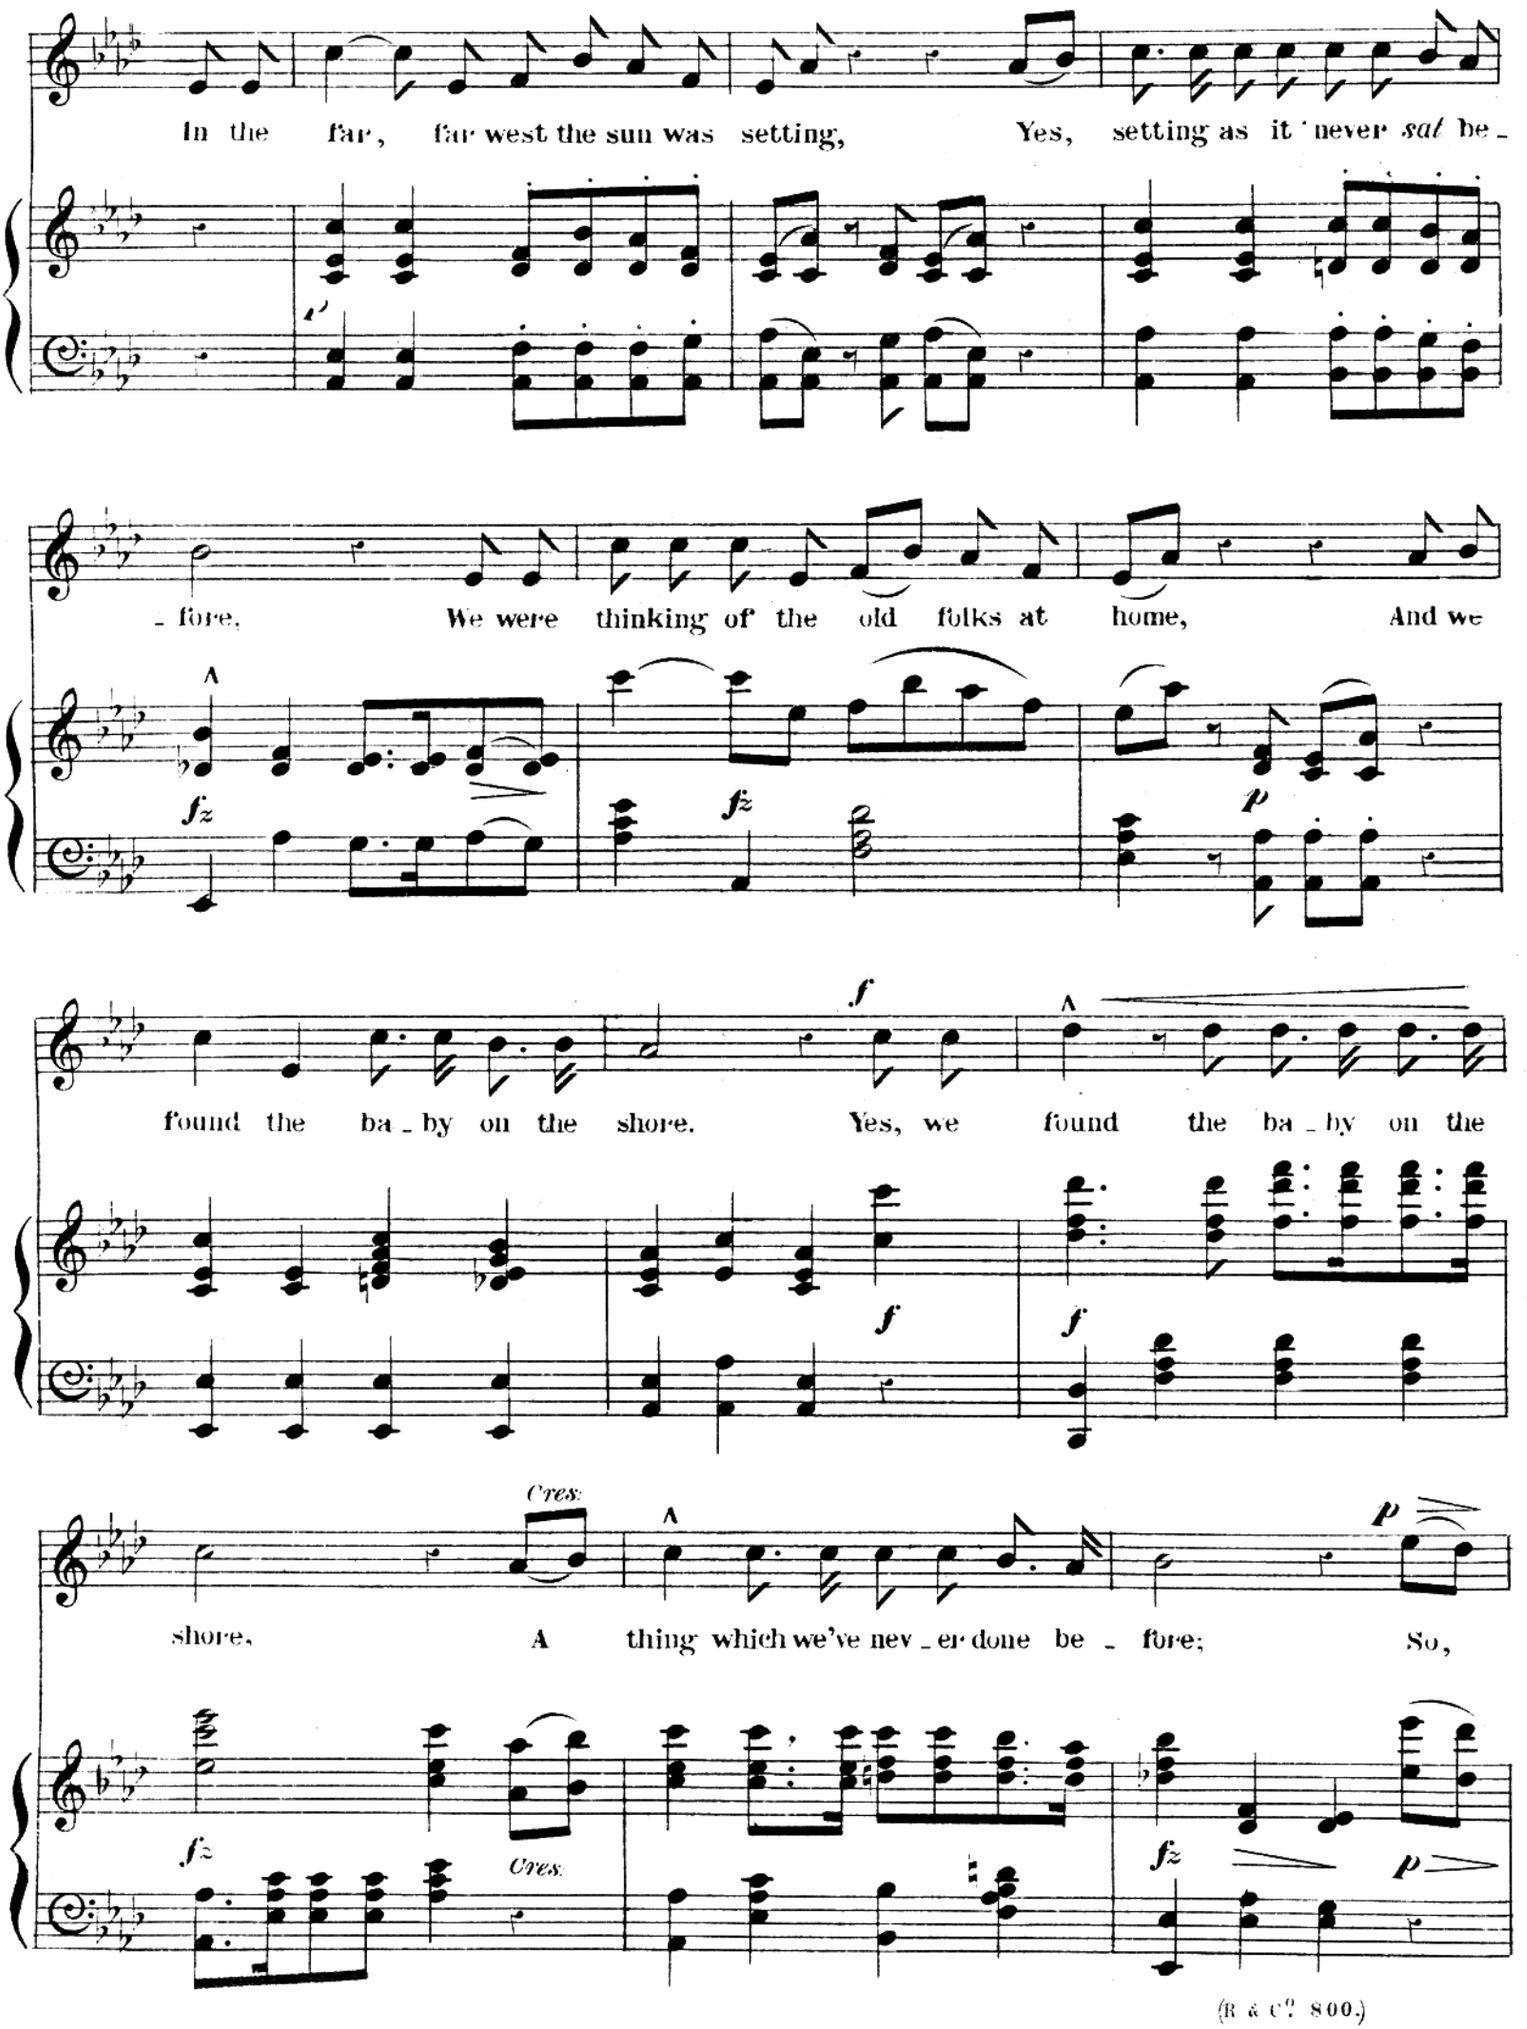
shore.



In the far, far west the sun was setting, Yes, setting as it never sat be-fore. We were thinking of the old folks at home, And we found the ba-by on the shore. Yes, we found the ba-by on the shore. A thing which we've nev-er done be-fore; So, Cres.
Cres.

Dim.
get..... the pipes and whiskey ready, And we'll feed the ba_by on the Dim.
f shore. Yes, we'll feed the ba_by on the shore, A thing which we've never done be_ f fz
Ores.
p Dim.
fore; Oh, way down the old Swannee river, We will feed the ba_by on the
fz
p Dim.
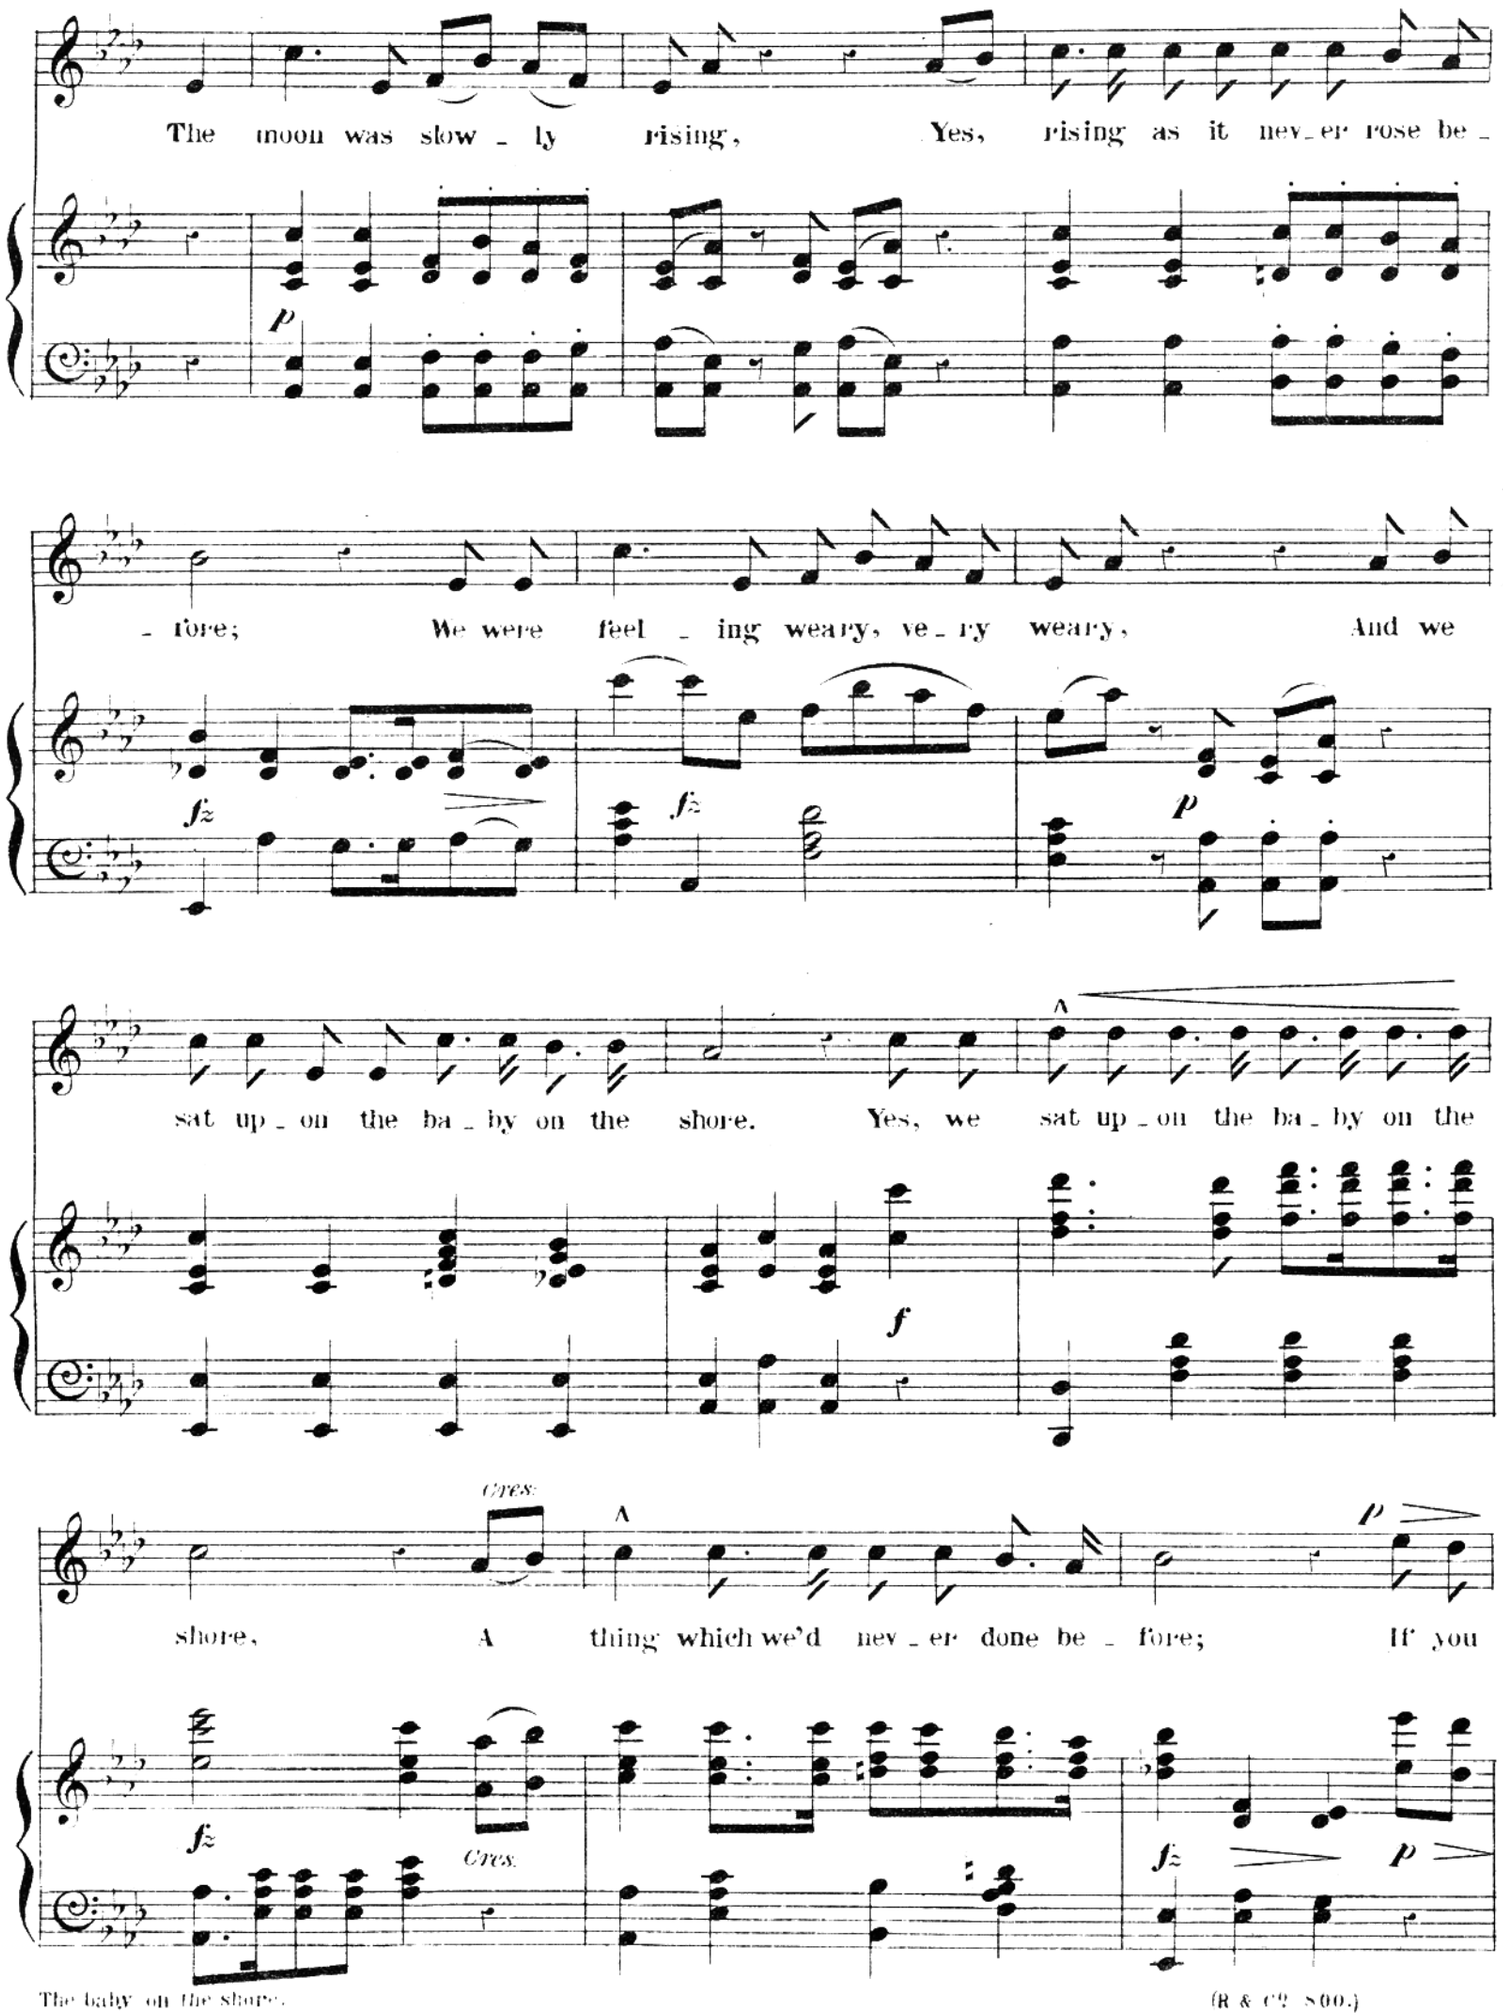
shore.



The moon was slow - ly rising, Yes, rising as it nev - er rose be -
- fore; We were feel - ing weary, ve - ry weary, And we sat up - on the ba - by on the shore. Yes, we sat up - on the ba - by on the Cres.
shore, A thing which we'd nev - er done be - fore; If you Cres.

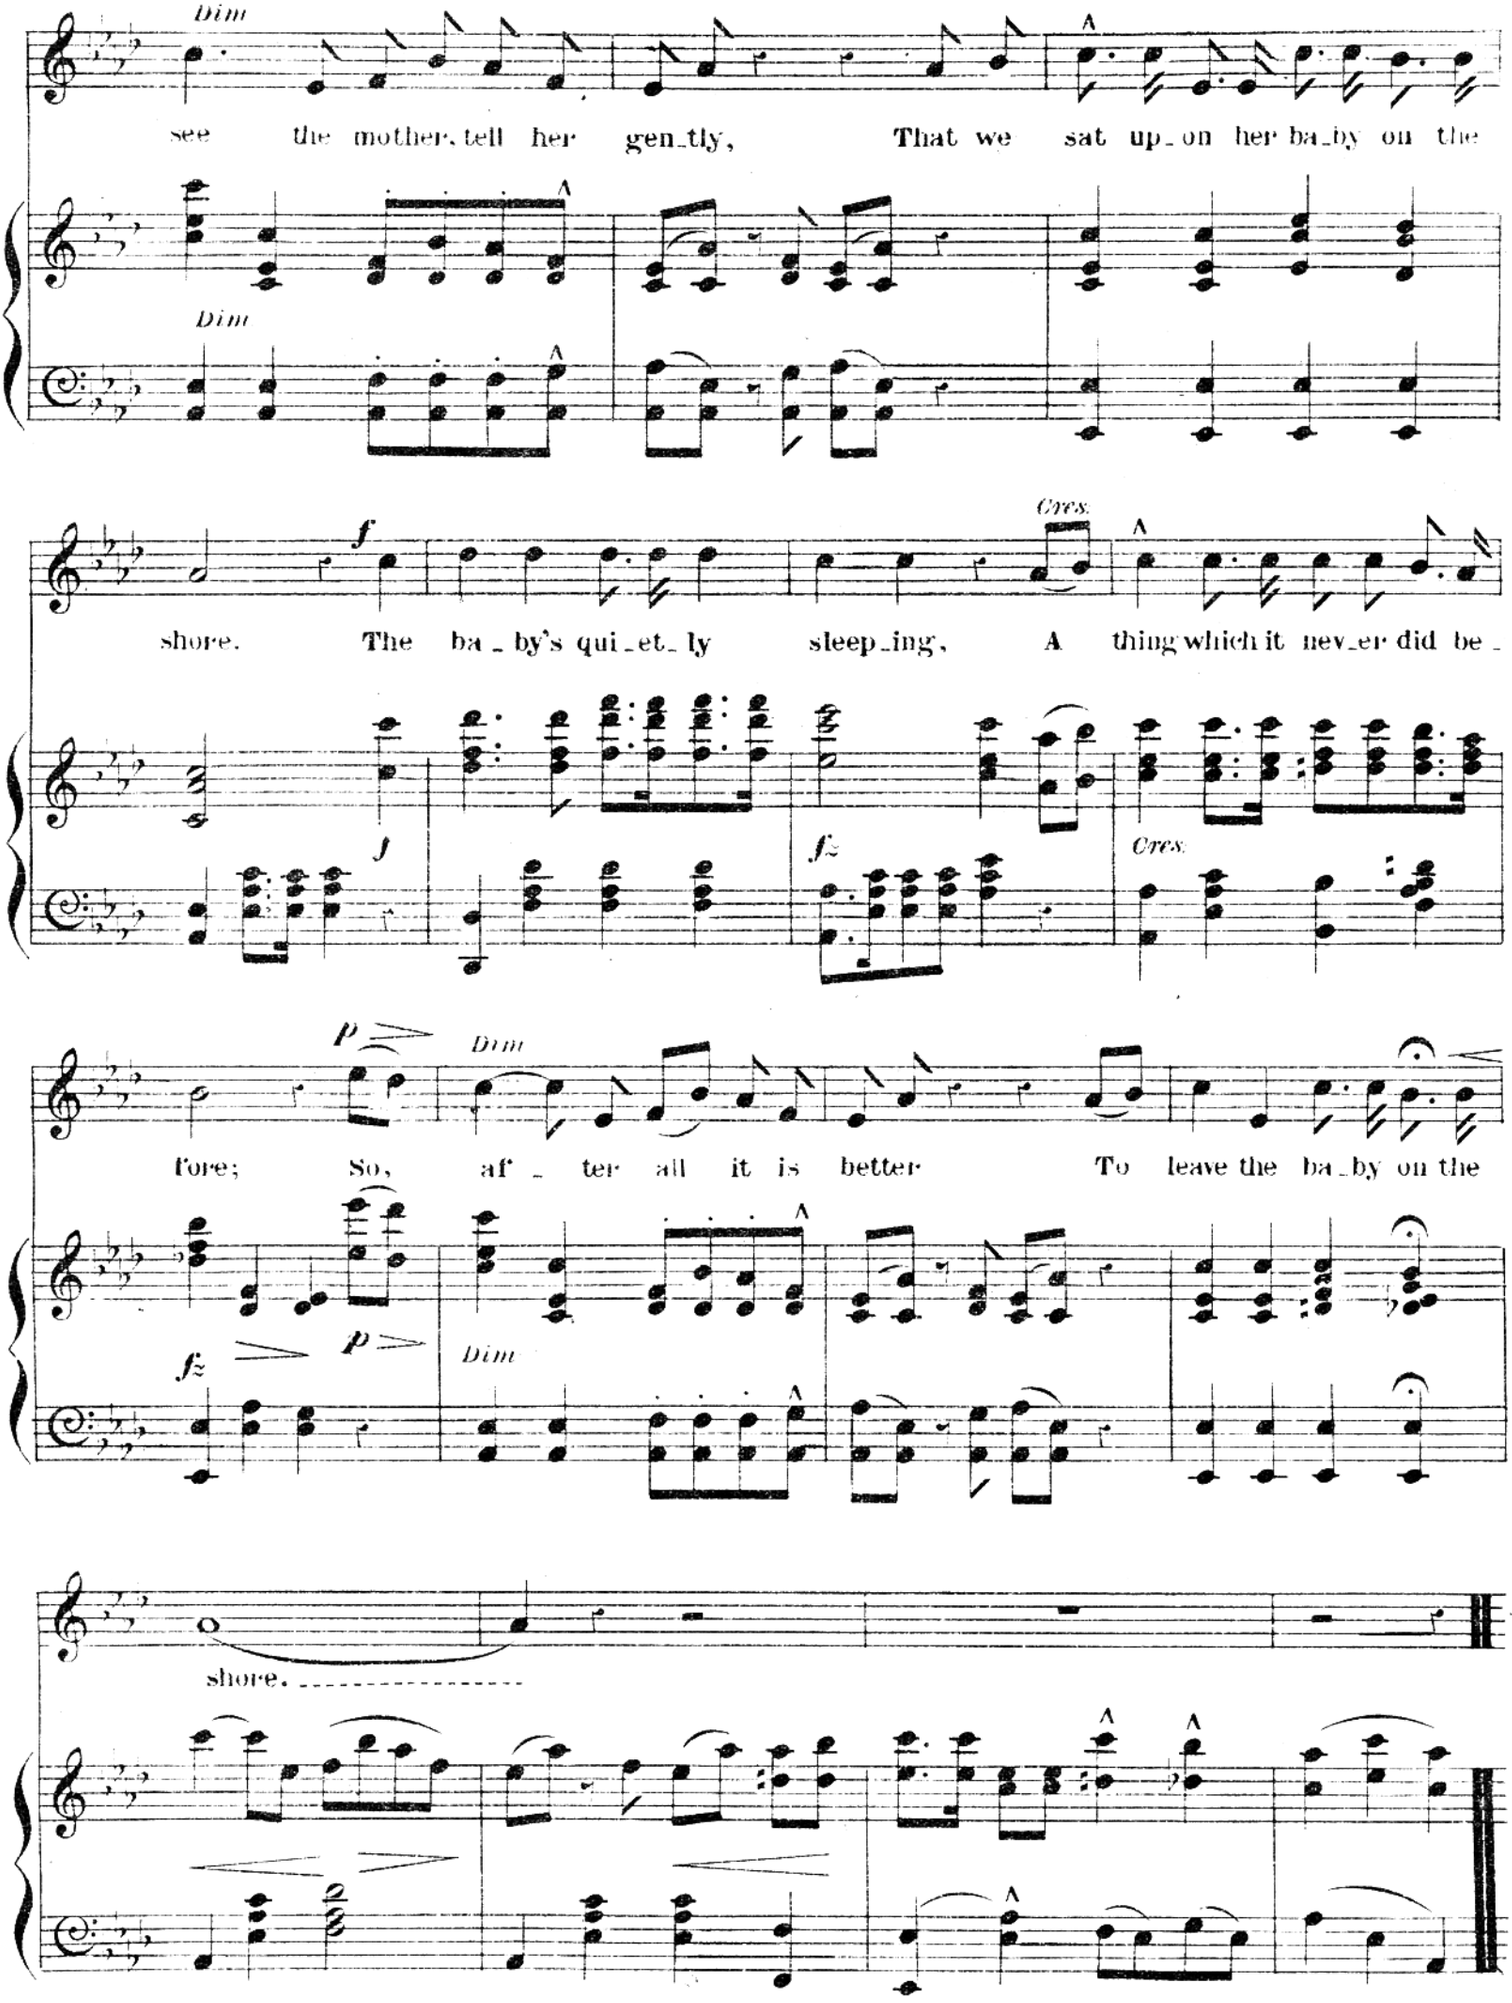
(R & Co. 800.)



Dim
see the mother, tell her gen_tly, That we sat up_on her ba_by on the Dim
f
Cres.
shore. The ba_by's qui_et_ly sleep_ing, A thing which it nev_er did be_ f fz
Cres.
p
Dim
fore; So, af_ter all it is better To leave the ba_by on the fz
p Dim
shore.