Handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of seven systems of staves. The score is written in a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature (C). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings.

The score is divided into two main sections, labeled "1a vez" and "2a vez", indicating first and second endings. The first section, "1a vez", spans the first four systems. The second section, "2a vez", spans the remaining three systems.

Key markings and dynamics include:

- pianissimo* (pp) at the beginning of the first system.
- con sicc.* (con sicc.) in the fifth system.
- D.C.* (Da Capo) at the end of the seventh system.

The notation features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and various rests. The score is written in a clear, legible hand, typical of 19th-century musical manuscripts.
