Out in the land where the red man used to reign
Out in the land where the mov-ing pic-ture grows

Vamp

Out where the gold-en sunshinetints the grain ——— Big Chief Wampum came to woo Clys-mic Wat-er Out where theyoung squawnow wears open hose ——— Gamb-ling on the green for coal Big Chief Wampum somegal too he owned a Ford ca - noe ——— just room for two ——— his book he knew. ——— lost his roll he held no ace in hole ——— and lost con-trol ——— of Clysmyc's soul. ———

Chorus

Clys-mic Wat-er was the daught-er of Big Chief White Rock ——— he once sold wat-ered Clys-mic Wat-er was the daught-er of Big Chief White Rock ——— she knew the way to stock to his best friend "Nev-er Knock" When the big town him go dry White Rock him wink hock a dia-mond or a clock Once big Chief Ford Ca-dil-lac tied her to the old red eye shook head and said "Daught-er Wat-er big town dead" Fi-re Wat-er rail-road track then said "Soon dead In-jun kill her" then he fled Old Red Rav-er came to court her brought a-round a quart him was an In-jun sport and him he came rav-in' start-ed do-ing splits and cut the rope in bits then he know the way to court Al-ways keeps her old pipe full of the ne-ces-sar-y bull took her to the Ritz Wherehead wait-er "I-rish Stew" him said "I re-mem-ber you"

Clys-mic Wat-er daught-er of White Rock. Rock.
