- H.C. 253 Spouse of Christ.
250 If there be that skills.
313 Holy God, we offer here.
251 O heavenly Jerusalem.
- E. 249 Jesu, Salvator saeculi.
199 How bright these glorious.
401 He wants not friends.
252 Our Father's home.
- P. 641 For all the (or 638, or 643).
519 Ye watchers (or 535, Pt. 2).

For Saturday evenings and for the first Evensong of Holy Days in general, the Hymns marked G, or the hymns set down for the second Evensong on the day itself, are suitable after the Office Hymn, in addition to 232 for Saturdays and 194 for Vigils. Saturday evenings have the same Office Hymn as Sunday evenings, except the eves of the Sunday after Christmas (14), of the Sundays from the Octave of the Epiphany till Lent (49), of the Sundays after Easter (122), of Whit-Sunday (150), and of the Sundays after Trinity (164). But the Office Hymns for the first Evensong of most Saints' Days are the same as those for Mattins, as is shown in the table on p. 913. The Epiphany and Ascension Day (with their Octaves) have the same Office Hymns for first and second Evensong; but in the ancient service-books no hymns are provided for Easter Even. Some hymns for Easter Even as well as for Christmas Eve are suggested in the List above.

LIST OF SIMPLE HYMNS

Suggested as a guide in choosing suitable hymns for Mission Services, for use at Sea, for Catechisms, Schools, and Institutions, and for any occasions when such hymns are required. With regard to the melodies of other hymns, it should, however, be remembered that they are nearly all easy to sing when they are well known. The numbers of hymns which are suitable for both young people and adults are printed in black type; these hymns, together with those in Part IX, will thus form a School and Catechism Hymn Book.

ADVENT

- 4 Great God, what do I see.
- 5 Hark! a herald voice.
