-ciev'd by the vapours of night, My Child you're deciev'd by the vapours of night.
-ciev'd by the vapours of night, My Child you're deciev'd by the vapours of night.

If thou wilt dear Baby with me go a - way, I'll give thee fine garments, well play a fine play; Fine flowers are growing white scarlet and blue, On the

My Father my Father and banks of yon river, and all are for you.

doft thou not hear. What words the Erl King whispers foft in my ear, Oh
 Oh
 Oh

hush thee my Child, fet thy bofom at eafe, Thou hearft but the willows when hush thee my Child, fet thy bofom at eafe, Thou hearft but the willows when hush thee my Child, fet thy bofom at eafe, Thou hearft but the willows when murmurs the breeze, Thou hearft but the willows when murmurs the breeze.

 murmurs the breeze, Thou hearft but the willows when murmurs the breeze.
 murmurs the breeze, Thou hearft but the willows when murmurs the breeze.

If thou wilt dear Baby with me go a - way, My Daughter shall nurse thee fo fair and fo gay; My Daughter in purple and gold who is drest, Shall

My Father my Father and love thee and kifs thee, and fing thee to rest.

doft thou not fee The Erl King and his Daughter are waiting for me. Oh
Oh
Oh

shame thee my Infant 'tis fear makes thee blind, Thou feest the dark willows which shame thee my Infant 'tis fear makes thee blind, Thou feest the dark willows which shame thee my Infant 'tis fear makes thee blind, Thou feest the dark willows which wave in the wind; Thou feest the dark willows which wave in the wind.

wave in the wind; Thou feest the dark willows which wave in the wind.
wave in the wind; Thou feest the dark willows which wave in the wind.

I love thee, I doat on thy features so fine I must and will have thee, and

My Father my Father oh hold me now fast, He force makes thee mine.
